Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2015-10-05 This volume brings together a representative set of the papers given at the third annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in Siena Italy in October 2013 The conference attracted presenters and attendees from a variety of nations throughout five continents The papers included in this volume are drawn from a series of conference sessions in which academicians and practitioners in the field offered theoretical analyses case studies and other perspectives on intercultural studies civic engagement and related topics The volume is divided into four sections Theoretical Considerations of Intercultural Competence and Interculturalism Intercultural Development and Assessment Practical Examples and Research Civic Engagement in International and Culturally Diverse Contexts and Intercultural Education and Training The reader will find that most of the papers address a variety of intercultural topics beyond their specific chapter designations In particular the theme of second language acquisition education and use was an overarching theme that emerged from a large number of papers and presentations specifically with regards to the complexities now faced by intercultural educators and researchers as a result of the increasing dominance of English as a lingua franca both in academe and many nations Reconceptualizing English Education in a

Multilingual Society Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2018-03-01 This book brings together chapters that describe investigate and analyze the place of English in education in multilingual Philippines Unlike most studies on languages in education which take a neutral de contextualized stance this volume take a pluricentric view of the English language by positioning it in relation to its varieties as well as to other languages in the country Because of the changing realities of English in the Philippines traditional assumptions about the language as monolithic and unchanging as well as about how it should be taught and learned need to be revisited and re conceptualized Towards Post-Native-Speakerism Stephanie Ann Houghton, Kayoko Hashimoto, 2017-12-05 This book probes for a post native speakerist future It explores the nature of English and Japanese native speakerism in the Japanese context and possible grounds on which language teachers could be employed if native speakerism is rejected i e what are the language teachers of the future expected to do and be in practice It reveals the problems presented by the native speaker model in foreign language education by exploring individual teacher researcher narratives related to workplace experience and language based inclusion exclusion as well as Japanese native speakerism in the teaching of Japanese as a foreign language It then seeks solutions to the problems by examining the concept of post native speakerism in relation to multilingual perspectives and globalisation generally with a specific focus on education Current Perspectives on Pedagogy for English as a Lingua Franca Yasemin Bayyurt, Sumru

Akcan, 2015-03-10 The aim of this edited volume is to examine how current theories and principles underlying English as a Lingua Franca studies contribute to research on present pedagogical practices in ELF contexts The book provides useful insights into pedagogical practices in different ELF settings and knowledge on the pedagogy policy relationship in terms of ELF The Sociolinguistics of Identity Tope Omoniyi, Goodith White, 2006-11-02 Across the social and behavioural sciences there has been an increased interest in identity as a subject of inquiry Despite this there remain questions to which researchers need to find answers and challenges to be made to older paradigms of analysis in order to continue to push the frontiers of knowledge in this research domain Identity is a problematic concept inasmuch as we recognise it now as non fixed non rigid and always being co constructed by individuals of themselves or by people who share certain core values or perceive another group as having such values This volume re examines the analytical tools employed in the sociolinguistic research of identity in order to assess their efficiency establish the roles of language in the identity claims of specific communities of people and determine the place of identity in a variety of social contexts including work places and language classrooms It will be of interest to academics and students working in sociolinguistics applied linguistics and second language learning Bloomsbury World Englishes Volume 2: Ideologies Rani Rubdy, Ruanni Tupas, Mario

Saraceni, 2021-05-20 Bloomsbury World Englishes offers a comprehensive and rigorous description of the facts implications and contentious issues regarding the forms and functions of English in the world International experts cover a diverse range of varieties and topics offering a more accurate understanding of English across the globe and the various social contexts in which it plays a significant role With volumes dedicated to research paradigms language ideologies and pedagogies the collection pushes the boundaries of the field to go beyond traditional descriptive paradigms and contribute to moving research agendas forward Volume 2 Ideologies explores the politics and economics of English and the impact of language on local societies and cultures In doing so chapters discuss how English is often entangled in societal issues such as inequality de colonization racism oppression and liberation The Rise of Chinese as a Global Language Jeffrey Gil, 2021-06-07 This book investigates the macroacquisition of Chinese its large scale acquisition and adoption for various purposes by individuals governments and organisations and the implications of this process for the future of English as a global language The author contextualises the macroacquisition of Chinese within the global ecology of languages then analyses the factors responsible for the macroacquisition of Chinese showing in contrast to most academic and popular commentary that a character based writing system will not stop Chinese from becoming a global language He then articulates three possible future scenarios English remaining a dominant global language English and Chinese both being global languages and Chinese becoming a global language instead of English The book concludes by outlining directions for further research on the acquisition and use of Chinese around the world It will be of interest to students and scholars with an interest in English as a global language Chinese as a second foreign language language education policy and applied linguistics more generally English as a Lingua Franca in Teacher Education Telma Gimenez, Michele Salles El Kadri, Luciana Cabrini Simões Calvo, 2017-11-07 A lingua franca perspective into English language teaching in Brazil has only recently take flight As an emerging economy the country faces enormous challenges when it comes to language education in schools where English has traditionally been taught as a foreign language This collection brings the perspectives of academics and language practitioners in their efforts to incorporate an ELF approach into teacher education thus offering a voice sorely missed in the international community interested in developing new approaches to English in a global world Principled Possibilities - Ideas for Teaching Gregory Quinlivan, 2012-01-08 Principled Possibilities Ideas for Teaching is a unique publication representing the summation of four years of graduate study and my own experiences discoveries experiments and successes over eight years of teaching throughout Asia and the Pacific Uniquely the book includes a wide selection of academic papers conference and training presentations and curriculum and planning documents links to websites and other resources for exploring the topics further and contacting the author ideas ranging from working with absolute young beginners to adult and upper intermediate level students discussions of current challenges and controversies in teaching approaches to online and computer assisted learning and suggestions in the field of English language teaching covering all areas Multicultural Education Georgeta Rață, 2013-07-16 Multicultural education is a set of strategies and materials in education developed to assist teachers in promoting democracy while responding to the many issues created by the rapidly changing demographics of their students Multicultural education means to ensure the highest levels of academic achievement for all students it helps students develop a positive self concept by providing knowledge about the histories cultures and contributions of diversity groups Multicultural Education From Theory to Practice which includes the contributions of academics and researchers from two continents and 14 culturally challenged countries aims to provide a platform for multicultural education researchers to present new research and developments in the area The contributors to the book approach the foundations of multicultural education the political context of multicultural education classroom practices in multicultural education and language education in a multicultural context This volume will appeal to a wide range of academic readership including educators researchers social students teacher trainers and teachers of all subjects and of all levels who wish to develop personally and professionally It will also be useful to all those who interact one way or another with both students and teachers in a multicultural context
