Writing in Foreign Language Contexts Rosa Manchón, 2009-07-09 This book represents the most comprehensive account to date of foreign language FL writing Its basic aim is to reflect critically on where the field is now and where it needs to go next in the exploration of FL writing at the levels of theory research and pedagogy hence the two parts of the book Looking back and Looking ahead The chapters in Part I offer accounts of both the inquiry process followed and the main insights gained in various long term research programs The chapters in Part 2 contribute a retrospective analysis of the available empirical research and of professional experiences in an attempt to move forward The book invites the reader to step back and rethink seemingly well established knowledge about L2 writing in light of what is known about writing in FL contexts

Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah, 2019-07-08 The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide

Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn, Correll, Pamela, Pearman, Cathy, Huffman, Stephanie, 2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher's voice dominates and only the dominant culture's language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students' voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students' home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices
