Teaching On Line Internet Research Conversation And Composition:

The Perfect Online Course Michael Simonson, Terry L. Hudgins, Anymir Orellana, 2009-05-01 The Perfect Online Course Best Practices for Designing and Teaching was edited under the assumption that a perfect online course can be delivered following different instructional methods and models for design and for instruction and by implementing different teaching or instructional strategies Such methods models and strategies are framed within quality educational guidelines and must be aimed towards attaining the online course s learning goals The book seeks to make a contribution to the existing body of literature related to best practices and guidelines for designing and teaching distance courses specifically online education The process of selecting works suitable for this compilation included an extensive review of the journals Quarterly review of Distance Education and Distance Learning The book begins by covering literature related to general approaches and guidelines continues with proposed methods and models for designing and instruction and ends with instructional strategies to achieve engagement through interaction The book is divided into four independent yet interrelated parts and a concluding section Part I Introduction Part II Best Guidelines and Standards Part III Best Instructional Methods and Models Part IV Best Engagement Strategies and the concluding section And Finally with words from Simonson who delineates the structure of a perfect online course Teaching Online ,1998 Researching Online ,1998 Teaching On-line ,1996 The Little, Brown Handbook Henry Ramsey Fowler, Jane E. Aaron, 1998 The Little Brown handbook for writers has been updated to keep up with changing trends The 2 most obvious changes that affect writers are the use of computer technology and the advent of the Internet a powerful and versatile research tool The Online Writing Classroom Susanmarie Harrington, Rebecca Rickly, Michael Day, 2000 This book is designed for writing teachers who teach in online environments primarily networked computer labs and the Internet and for writing teachers who would like to teach in such spaces All the contributors write from their own teaching research or administrative experience and all tell their stories in a rich theoretical context that will allow readers to see the relationship between theory context and practice The chapters serve as descriptive guides to new teaching practices to help the reader find ways to use online activities to further their own pedagogical goals within their own specific contexts Reviewing Basic Grammar Mary Laine Yarber, Robert E. Yarber, 2001 This grammar and sentence paragraph worktext offers a thorough review of grammatical concepts and rules including many exercises that students can use to practice what they have learned Also includes an appendix for ESL writers and chapter end Writing Paragraphs sections that illustrate the use of grammar in the context of writing Composing with Confidence Alan Meyers, 2002-08 This student friendly Sixth Edition of Composing with Confidence focuses on the writing of paragraphs and essays within the composing process Students are guided step by step through the composing process but are provided with options in prewriting discovery outlining and predicting Each chapter in the unit on the rhetorical modes offers student model paragraphs and essays as well as professional models Each chapter in this unit includes a well wrought paragraph assignment an optional essay writing assignment and at least five alternative assignments several of them in response to readings to allow for maximum instructional flexibility Original contributions from well known authors textbook writers professors and editors offer students advice and insights into the composing practices of professionals And a full unit of fifteen readings from professional as well as student writers establishes the reading writing connection while providing students with additional models and prompts for writing A full unit on sentence level issues of grammar and mechanics offers students instruction in only those skills that they need to master to make their writing clear and grammatically correct Each chapter in the unit ends with two Editing for Mastery exercises in which students must find and correct errors in extended prose passage The answers to the first exercise are provided in an appendix Tips boxes and If Your First Language Is Not English boxes also provide short specific and practical advice to students Above all however Composing with Confidence retains its most popular feature fast paced high interest continuous discourse materials that make the book fun to read and work with

Reading Across the Disciplines Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2004-04 Reading Across the Disciplines has been a popular textbook with instructors whose students do not require an abundance of skill instruction and who teach college reading through the use of readings from across the disciplines To prepare students for the expectations of higher education Kathleen McWhorter uses high interest readings from a variety of academic sources and provides concise reading skills with immediate practice for reinforcement Discipline specific reading skills offer tips for reading and learning within the particular discipline so students learn content as well as strategy

Making Teaching Community Property Pat Hutchings, 2023-07-03 Describes strategies through which faculty can document and go public with their teaching be it for purposes of improvement or evaluation Each of nine chapters features a different strategy from the fairly simple low risk teaching circle to course portfolios to more formal departmental occasions such as faculty hiring with reports by faculty who have actually tried each strategy guidelines for good practice and an annotated list of resources

Writing with Confidence Alan Meyers, 2000

Teaching Online Claire Howell Major, 2015-03-15 Demystifies online teaching for both enthusiastic and wary educators and helps faculty who teach online do their best work as digital instructors It is difficult to imagine a college class today that does not include some online component whether a simple posting of a syllabus to course management software the use of social media for communication or a full blown course offering through a MOOC platform In Teaching Online Claire Howell Major describes for college faculty the changes that accompany use of such technologies and offers real world strategies for surmounting digital teaching challenges Teaching with these evolving media requires instructors to alter the ways in which they conceive of and do their work according to Major They must frequently update their knowledge of learning teaching and media and they need to develop new forms of instruction revise and reconceptualize classroom materials and refresh their communication patterns Faculty teaching online must also reconsider the student experience and determine what changes for students ultimately mean for their own work and for their institutions Teaching Online presents instructors with a thoughtful synthesis of educational theory research and practice as well as a review of strategies for managing the instructional changes involved in teaching online In addition this book presents examples of best practices from successful online instructors as well as cutting edge ideas from leading scholars and educational technologists Faculty members researchers instructional designers students administrators and policy makers who engage with online learning will find this book an invaluable resource
