Teaching the Mildly Handicapped in the Regular Classroom James Q. Affleck, Sheila Lowenbraun, Anita L. Archer, 1980-01-01 Teaching Mildly Handicapped Children in Regular Classes Sheila Lowenbraun, James Q. Affleck, Anita L. Archer, Eugene B. Edgar, Richard S. Neel, 1976 Methods Of Teaching Exceptional Children J.Madhu Bala, 2010 Teacher education is quantitatively marching ahead towards quality education. The central and state governments through the NCTE and the Directorates of School Higher Education are rendering their legitimate service in improving the quality of teacher education by formulating and implementing various academic policies and educational programmes Along with these policies and programmes the teacher educators and the prospective teachers teaching and studying in teacher education institutions need good curriculum and quality books Contents Introduction Basic Issues Fundamental Elements The Disadvantaged Mentally Disabled Children Socially Backward Children Slow Learning Specific Provisions New Experiments Integrated Streams Training the Teachers Talented Children Research Work Assessment of Research Official Policies Programme of Action Young Criminals Conclusion Developmental Disabilities Abstracts, 1978 Teaching Students with Mild Disabilities Tom E. Wiener, Project TAMEC., 1979 Teaching Low Achieving and Disadvantaged Students Charles H. Hargis, 2006 This new edition updates and expands the previous volume and continues to reflect the concepts and the reasons behind learning and behavior problems of low achieving and disadvantaged students Through the chapters the author describes instructional levels and independent levels emphasizing that success is produced by finding the place on the curriculum for each student at these levels Details and reactions in light of events and experiences of the intervening years is examined outlining assessment procedures to separate real disabilities from school created ones and then describing the educational treatment of each Other topics include the grading system student centered curriculum an alternate perspective on testing and a changed role for the teacher Instructional delivery systems centered on curriculum based assessment and cooperative noncompetitive learning methods are also proposed Designed for classroom teachers as well as administrators the text is the result from the author's role in working with children who are casualties of the educational system as well as his progress in helping to develop a successful alternative Attitudes Toward Handicapped Students Marcia D. Horne, 2012-12-06 Many handicapped children are public high school now being treated and educated in the mainstream of society Therefore it is important for professionals to be knowledgeable about the attitudes of societal members toward these students This text is a thorough and invaluable sourcebook on how attitudes are formed measured and changed An extensive discussion about professional peer parental and sibling attitudes toward a class or family member and reviewing methodologies for change are provided Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1990 United States. Slavin, 1996-01-01 This work is a collection of previously published articles by Robert Slavin The articles trace the evolution over a quarter century of the powerful idea that given well developed rigorously evaluated methods and materials teachers can succeed with virtually all children Time and Learning in the Special Education Classroom Libby Goodman,1990-01-01 Focusing on the relationship between time use and learning results this book explores the instructional processes in special education classrooms. The text emphasizes teacher control of time resources at the classroom level instructional management strategies that conserve and enhance instructional time and the efficient and effective use of learning time to enhance student performance outcomes The dual dimensions of time and task are incorporated throughout the text to communicate the essential message that time and the appropriate use of time go hand in hand in the classroom Adequate time alone is a necessary but insufficient condition for maximal learning to occur Time and Learning in the Special Education Classroom strikes a balance between research and application to achieve a scholarly yet readable text relevant for both pre service and in service teachers supervisors principals administrators and teacher educators
