Developing Reflective TESOL Practitioners Through Teacher Education Andrzej Cirocki, Mark Wyatt, Xuesong (Andy) Gao, 2024-06-26 This textbook provides insights from Asian contexts into how reflective practice is nurtured on Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL and English Language Teaching ELT teacher education programmes There is increasing recognition worldwide that given the centrality of reflective practice to teachers ongoing professional development supporting teachers to become reflective practitioners should be integral to teacher education programmes Consequently tertiary level courses in areas such as TESOL and ELT tend to promote reflective practice supported by theoretical input from the burgeoning literature on reflection much of which is produced in the West Relatively under represented in the literature are global perspectives on reflective practice there are consequently relatively few accounts as to how reflective practice is embedded in teacher education programmes in different parts of the world including Asia Hence this book addresses a gap Contributing authors from fourteen countries provide insights into the ways in which teachers are helped to grow as reflective practitioners on their teacher education programmes in their unique contexts This textbook showcases how reflective teaching practices are developed supported by frameworks for critical reflection and in interaction with local educational policies These distinctive accounts aid readers in reflecting on the ways in which reflective practice is supported in their own teacher education contexts and in considering ways of enhancing the reflective dimension of their programmes This textbook showcases innovative reflective activities and can be used as a principal text or as supplemental reading on a range of TESOL and ELT teacher education courses

Handbook of Research on Teacher Practices for Diverse Writing Instruction Hodges, Tracey S.,2022-05-20 The art and practice of writing is complex and multidimensional students often apply unique writing styles As such educators must apply focused teaching methods to nurture these unique forms of writing Educators must stay up to date with the practices for diverse writing instruction in order to best engage with a diverse classroom However resources related to writing typically do not focus on the depth and breadth of writing and there is a need for a resource that offers a comprehensive look at diverse writing instruction research The Handbook of Research on Teacher Practices for Diverse Writing Instruction provides a rich discussion of the issues perspectives and methods for writing instruction currently in use with an added lens focusing on diversity and equity It provides unique coverage on the topic of writing instruction for practical implementation within the classroom setting Covering topics such as student motivation curriculum development and content area instruction this major reference work is an essential resource for preservice teachers faculty and administration of K 12 and higher education academic libraries government officials school boards researchers and academicians

Teaching Literature as Reflective Practice Kathleen Blake Yancey,2004 Teaching Literature as Reflective Practice speaks to all those teachers who teach the gen ed literature course that their students must take to complete a general education or core curriculum requirement These students the 95 percent who are not English majors are the students we hope will become active and reflective members of a reading public Given this goal Kathleen Blake Yancey outlines a course located in reflective practice and connected to readings in the world The course invites students to theorize about their own reading practices about how literature is made and about texts and their relationships to culture more generally Such a course also encourages students to think about what places and occasions in the world are poetic about the role of not understanding in coming to understand literature and about technological forms of literacy such as multimedia pop ups that link associatively to multiple contexts In addition to cogent reflections on the realities of lived delivered and experienced curricula Yancey defines illustrates and analyzes two kinds of literature portfolio print and electronic and shows how each fosters a particular kind of learning and leads to specific assessment practices
