Pope John Paul II Michael O'Carroll, 1994-01-01 The Teachings of Pope John Paul II on CD-ROM Pope John Paul II, 1998 The Moral Theology of Pope John Paul II Charles E. Curran, 2005-01-06

Pope John Paul II is the second longest serving pope in history and the longest serving pope of the last century. His presence has thrown a long shadow across our time and his influence on Catholics and non Catholics throughout the world cannot be denied. Much has been written about this pope but until now no one has provided a systematic and thorough analysis of the moral theology that underlies his moral teachings and its astonishing influence. And no one is better positioned to do this than Charles E. Curran, widely recognized as the leading American Catholic moral theologian. Curran focuses on the authoritative statements specifically the fourteen papal encyclicals the pope has written over the past twenty five years to examine how well the pope has addressed the broad issues and problems in the Church today. Curran begins with a discussion of the theological presuppositions of John Paul II's moral teaching and moral theology. Subsequent chapters address his theological methodology, his ethical methodology and his fundamental moral theology together with his understanding of human life. Finally Curran deals with the specific issues of globalization, marriage, conscience, human acts and the many issues involved in social and sexual ethics. While finding much to admire, Curran is nonetheless fiercely precise in his analysis and rigorously thoughtful in his criticism of much of the methodological aspects of the pope's moral theology, in his use of scripture, tradition and previous hierarchical teaching in theological aspects including Christology, eschatology and the validity of human sources of moral wisdom and knowledge and in anthropology, the ethical model and natural law. Brilliantly constructed and fearlessly argued, this will be the definitive measure of Pope John Paul II's moral theology for years to come.

Teachings for an Unbelieving World John Paul II, 2020-03-20

Winner of a first place award for English translation editions from The Catholic Media Association, Teachings for an Unbelieving World is a newly discovered work written by St. John Paul II then Archbishop Karol Wojtyła of Kraków in the years just after Vatican II. He uses St. Paul's sermon to the people of Athens in Acts 17 as a framework for articulating the faith in a culture of skepticism and unbelief. These thirteen brief reflections provide compelling teaching for Catholics in today's post-Christian world and give fresh insight into JPII's pontificate. This is the first English language publication of this important work. St. John Paul II composed these thirteen reflections at a unique point of convergence in history: the closing of Vatican II in 1965 and the 1966 observance of one thousand years of Christianity in Poland. Teachings for an Unbelieving World is an extended meditation on Acts 17 where Paul speaks to the cultural elite of

Athens after he observed an altar of an unknown god in the city Quoting from both the Bible and the documents of Vatican II John Paul II draws timely wisdom from the apostle s mission to bring the truth of the Gospel to a worldly culture of sophistication and disbelief one not unlike our own The future pope reveals Paul s memorable encounter as an enduring framework to boldly present the core truths of Catholic faith to those living under Poland s communist regime In so doing JP II demonstrates how relevant Paul s words are today and equips us to meet the challenges of proclaiming the faith in our times Teachings for an Unbelieving World affirms the continuity of Catholic faith about humanity s place in God s creation our search for meaning truth and freedom addressing a culture of unbelief the gift of redemption in Jesus Christ the grace of the Holy Spirit the role of the Church in the world the power of the Eucharist the redemptive and self giving nature of human love and the importance of prayer The Social Teaching of John Paul II Pope John Paul II, Roger Heckel, 1980
