Tearing the Social Fabric Pádraig Risteard Carmody, 2001 As the second most industrially developed economy in Sub Saharan Africa World Bank officials argued that Zimbabwe could be the first African country to succeed with economic liberalization However the experience of structural adjustment was disastrous as it led to widespread deindustrialization In contrast to predictions a World Bank International Monetary Fund program led to the collapse of industries it was meant to promote textiles clothing and footwear This book examines the reasons behind this seeming paradox through an in depth case study of the experience of textiles clothing and footwear sub sectors in Zimbabwe under structural adjustment Economic liberalization failed because it did not relate to the local economic context This failure led to autonomous development of the trade and financial sectors to the detriment of production The economic crisis that resulted is a critical factor behind recent political instability and the current crisis of governance in Zimbabwe Padraig Carmody argues that alternatives must be based on a better understanding of the local politico economic context in Zimbabwe Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa P. New Leaders, New Dawns? Chris Brown, David Moore, Blair Rutherford, 2022-06-17 In late 2017 and early 2018 South Africa and Zimbabwe both experienced rapid and unexpected political transitions In Zimbabwe Robert Mugabe the only leader the country had ever known was replaced in a soft coup by his erstwhile vice president Emmerson Mnangagwa Over a twelve day period in February 2018 South African president Jacob Zuma was prematurely forced from office by his former deputy president Cyril Ramaphosa The widespread popular rejoicing that accompanied their arrival compounded the shock of these sudden transitions New Leaders New Dawns explores these political transitions and the way they were received Contributors consider how the former liberation heroes Mugabe and Zuma could have fallen so low the underlying reasons for their ouster what happened to their liberation movements turned ruling parties and perhaps most importantly what the rise to power of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa foreshadowed Bringing together fourteen leading international scholars of southern Africa and adopting a political economy framework this volume argues that the changes in leadership are welcome but insufficient While the time had come for Zuma and Mugabe to go there is little in the personal histories or early policy actions of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa that suggests they will be capable of addressing the profound social economic and political problems both countries face New Leaders New Dawns reveals that despite what these new leaders may have promised a new dawn has not yet arrived in southern Africa

Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa s regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa s relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive

African Studies Review ,2004      Decolonizing Development Joel David Wainwright,2003      Trampled No More Otrude Nontobeko Moyo,2007-09-16 The stories of the Zimbabwean situation particularly those of the urban townships of Bulawayo are poignantly narrated through the voices of family members recounting their personal circumstances and what they perceive as the primary factors contributing to their repressed positions in the socio economical hierarchy Using an insider s perspective Professor Moyo goes behind the scenes in order to dismantle the simplistic blame game which asserts that the deterioration of Zimbabwe was caused solely by the current ZANU PF lead government The study details the historical context and interpretations of history which led to the much discussed Zimbabwean political and economic crisis Socio economic policies that shape and continue to shape the complex livelihoods of the Zimbabwean people are also attributed to current and future conditions The author argues that within the Zimbabwean situation these contributors and their counters have not encouraged the prioritization of the needs of the most vulnerable population groups but rather that they have a tendency to hinder their general well being by limiting fundamental resources such as access to basic necessities freedoms affirmation of communality and individuality Through the narratives of the Zimbabwean people Professor Moyo highlights some of the acute strategies they and their families have used to survive as a way to explore future policy avenues that take into account people s agentiveness the capacity to overcome unfavorable conditions by utilizing what little resources are available Zimbabwe s greatest asset      Africa at the Crossroads John Mukum Mbaku,Suresh Chandra Saxena,2004-04-30 Selected bibliography pp 429 442      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-06      Islam Ali Al'Amin Mazrui,2006 Islam in this twenty first century is caught up in a vortex of three inter related forces globalization international terrorism and the rise of the American Empire Mazrui examines those forces from the perspective of the rise and fall of civilizations ranging from the creation of the state of Israel to the aftermath of September 11 back cover      Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2004
