Music, Patronage and Printing in Late Renaissance

Florence Tim Carter, 2024-10-28 This collection of reprinted essays starts from the author's doctoral research on Jacopo Peri and the rise of opera and solo song in late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Florence. It extends to broader issues concerning music and patronage in the city as they affected individual composers, patrons and institutions and thence to the commerce of music printing and the book trade. It concludes with an attempt to suggest a broader view of these various issues as they impact upon musical life in the provinces in Tuscany. There is a great deal of new documentary and other information here but the aim is also to expand methodological horizons so as to prompt new ways of thinking about music in its contexts. The Theatre of Rafael Alberti Louise B. Popkin, 1975. Published by Boydell Brewer Inc.

The Theater of Tony Kushner James Fisher, 2002. First Published in 2002. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an information company.

Chapters from the History of Stage Cruelty Günter Ahrends, Hans-Jürgen Diller, 1994. Love, Desire and Identity in the Theatre of Federico García Lorca Paul McDermid, 2007. Physical desire and metaphysical love in the theatre of Federico García Lorca. A dialectical tension between physical desire and metaphysical love lies at the heart of the theatre works of Federico García Lorca and the deployment of queer theory's critique of gender and identity is surprisingly effective in this discussion of love versus desire. Seldom is enough attention paid to the poet's early works and so this book offers a timely review of the religious tragedy Cristo as well as Mariana Pineda. Uncovering in these early offerings an explicit proposal of the supremacy of love over desire. A meditation on the fragmentary and challenging El pánico yields a vivid panorama of identity in crisis and a paradigmatic Lorcan sacrifice of self for love. The ostensibly more conventional tragedies of Amor de Don Perlimplín and Belisa en su jardín and Yerma are also reassessed in terms of self sacrifice and self love. The study concludes with an argument for a practical re-reading of La casa de Bernarda Alba which emphasises how the play might be saved from post-factum realism with music, humour and drag performance. PAUL McDERMID lectures in Spanish at Queen's University Belfast.

Pastoral Drama and Healing in Early Modern Italy Federico Schneider, 2016-05-13. Pastoral Drama and Healing in Early Modern Italy represents the first full-length study to confront seriously the well-rehearsed analogy of the pastoral poet as healer. Usually associated with the edifying function of the Renaissance pastoral, this analogy if engaged more profoundly raises a number of questions that remain unanswered to this day. How does the pastoral heal? How exactly do the inner workings of the text cater to the healing? What socio-cultural conventions make the healing possible? What are the major problems that pastoral poetry as mimesis must overcome to make its healing morally legitimate? In the wake of Derrida's seminal work on the Platonic pharmakon which has in turn led recent criticism to formulate a much more concrete understanding of the theater drug analogy, the stringent approach to the therapeutic function of the Renaissance pastoral offered in this work provides a valuable critical tool to unpack the complexity contained within a little understood cliché.
