Revolution and Reform in Russia and Iran Ghoncheh Tazmini, 2012-03-30 The Russian Revolutions of 1917 and the Iranian Revolution of 1979 are two examples of dramatic sudden and extraordinary political upheaval that significantly altered the nature of the state and society in the modern age Here Ghoncheh Tazmini provides an unprecedented comparative study of these two major revolutions of the twentieth century which although removed from each other both spatially and temporally have striking similarities Examining the roots events and impact of these two defining upheavals Tazmini analyses how they resemble each other stressing the continuity of the dilemma of modernisation for the Romanov Pahlavi Communist and Islamist rulers alike This book is a significant contribution to both historical and contemporary debates concerning Russian and Iranian politics and to the discourse on the origins and consequences of modernisation and revolution themselves

Twilight of the Titans Paul K. MacDonald, Joseph M. Parent, 2018-04-15 In Twilight of the Titans Paul K. MacDonald and Joseph M. Parent examine great power transitions since 1870 to determine how declining powers choose to behave identifying the strong incentives to moderate their behavior when the hierarchy of great powers is shifting Challenging the conventional wisdom that such transitions push declining great powers to extreme measures this book argues that intimidation provocation and preventive war are not the only alternatives to the loss of relative power and prestige Using numerous case studies MacDonald and Parent show how declining states tend to behave the policy options they have how rising states respond to those in decline and what conditions reward particular strategic choices

Reflecting Imperial Overstretch and New Realities Brian O'Sullivan, 2024-07-03 This book is the first comprehensive history of the British Trade Corporation which was constituted under a Royal Charter on 21st April 1917 Its charter was meant to last for sixty years but in 1926 after a turbulent existence of only nine years it was amalgamated with the Anglo Austrian Bank and absorbed into the Anglo International Bank The corporation together with its two main subsidiaries the Levant Company and the National Bank of Turkey conducted business not only in Britain but in Russia Turkey the Middle East and in Continental Europe Although the corporation was not an agent of empire it reflected Britain's imperialistic ambitions after the First World War As a result it invested in some of the most unstable regions of the world It was also severely affected by British foreign policy which was often misjudged and at times duplicitous resulting in serious damage to British trade Within five years of its launch the British Trade Corporation needed to be refinanced The economic downturn in the early 1920s and ongoing hostilities in Eastern Europe and the Near East meant that it struggled to survive Its difficulties reflected many of those faced by Britain in general after the war and the need to come to terms with the new realities of the post war world Despite its innovative attempt to address the perceived deficiencies in Britain's financial system especially in respect of industrial finance the British Trade Corporation has been largely ignored by financial historians Based on substantial archival research this book rectifies this neglect and makes an important contribution to the financial history of interwar Britain
