The Bulletin of the Bibliographical Society of America Bibliographical Society of America, 1910 Sourcebook for Research in Music Phillip Crabtree, Donald H. Foster, 1993 This bibliography of bibliographies lists and describes sources from basic references to highly specialized materials Valuable as a classroom text and as a research tool for scholars librarians performers and teachers Fullerene Research, 1985-1993 Tibor Braun, 1995 This volume contains very carefully compiled material presenting bibliographic descriptions of approximately 3500 papers with a computer generated index on authors subject headings corporate addresses and journals There are many on line services available on fullerenes but they serve mainly current awareness functions none of them is selectively complete and carefully indexed and none can replace a complete retrospective bibliography which most researchers in the field would want to have on hand in their laboratories and offices Ultimate Realities Robert C. Neville, 2001-01-01 Explores ultimate realities in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself From Medieval to Medievalism John Simons, 1992-10-13 The book surveys medieval literature from both a critical and an historical standpoint Medieval literature is increasingly seen as an area of intense specialism which is to be treated differently from other areas of English Studies The essays collected here try to overturn this perception in two ways Firstly there is a demonstration of the ways in which modern critical approaches and perspectives work with the medieval text Secondly the idea of the medieval is shown historically to be a discourse which has been given different symbolic values and served different social purposes
