Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah,2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i e to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice Scribal Habits and Theological Influences in the Apocalypse Juan Hernández,2006 Originally presented as the author s thesis Ph D Emory University 2006 A Critical Examination of the Coherence-Based Genealogical Method in New Testament Textual Criticism Peter J. Clarke,1997-01-01 This book is a critique of the rating system by the sigla the probabilities of readings chosen for the UBS text especially the upgraded ratings of the 1994 4th ed
