Classical Learning in Britain, France, and the Dutch Republic, 1690-1750 Floris Verhaart, 2020-06-10 For much of western history the achievements of classical antiquity were seen as unsurpassable and works by Latin and Greek authors were viewed as treasure troves of information still useful for contemporary society By the late seventeenth century however the progress of scientific discoveries and the new paradigms of rationalism and empiricism meant the authority of the ancients was called into question Those working on the classical past and its literature debated new ways of defending their relevance for society The different approaches to classical literature defended in these debates explain how the writings of ancient Greece and Rome could become a vital part of eighteenth century culture and political thinking Floris Verhaart analyses these eighteenth century debates about the value of classics arguing that the Enlightenment though often seen as an age of reason and modernity in fact continuously sought inspiration from preceding traditions and ages such as Renaissance humanism and classical antiquity The volume offers an interesting parallel with the modern day in which the relationship between experts and the general public has become the topic of debate and many academics especially in the humanities face pressure to explain how their work benefits society at large Comparative Criticism: Volume 12, Representations of the Self E. S. Shaffer, 1990-09-27 This volume explores a theme that has become central in our time as the death of God is widely seen to be succeeded by the death of Man Our contributors set forth its urgency in a variety of contexts Among these Peter Stern gives the paradigmatic history of the bereft damaged and repudiated self in German philosophy and literature from Kleist to Ernst Jilnger In Not I Michael Edwards pursues the theological and psychological consequences of a self without substance Peter France supplies a witty account of the marriage of self and commerce more at home in the eighteenth century tradition of British empiricism and the challenge of Rousseau's refusal of the terms of commerce Raman Selden explores views of the self from the Romantics to the poststructuralists Roger Cardinal probes the secret diary as the genre a contradiction in terms Stephen Bann explores the representations of Narcissus in recent psychoanalytic theory Other contributors include Pierre Dupuy David James Julie Scott Meisami Gregory Blue Mark Ogden and A D Nuttall Architecture, Print Culture and the Public Sphere in Eighteenth-Century France Richard Wittman, 2007 This book focuses on the complex ways in which architectural practice theory patronage and experience became modern with the rise of a mass public and a reconfigured public sphere between the end of the seventeenth century and the French Revolution Presenting a fresh theoretical orientation and a large body of new primary research this book offers a new cultural history of virtually all the major monuments of eighteenth century Parisian architecture with detailed analyses of the public debates that erupted around such Parisian monuments as the east facade of the Louvre the Place Louis XV the Place de la Concorde and the church of Sainte Genevieve the Pantheon Depicting the passage of architecture into a mediatized public culture as a turning point and interrogating it as a symptom of the distinctly modern configuration of individual society and space that emerged during this period this study will interest readers well beyond the discipline of architectural history

Exoticism in the Enlightenment George Sebastian Rousseau, Roy Porter, 1990 Barbary and Enlightenment Ann Thomson, 1987-06-01 This book based on a wide range of eighteenth century works concerns European attitude towards North Africa in the century preceding the French conquest of Algiers in 1830 It studies the radical transformation of perceptions of Barbary during the period essentially by placing them in the context of the different eighteenth century systems of classification of the world We see that uncertainty as to how to classify this region its inhabitants its form of government and social evolution which led to its absence from most contemporary anthropological discussions was resolved in the early nineteenth century with the appearance of what were to become colonial stereotypes The Collected Papers of Bertrand Russell, Volume 12 Bertrand Russell, 2024-08-01 Contemplation and Action 1902 14 is the first volume devoted exclusively to Russell's non technical writings It follows chronologically Volume 1 Cambridge Essays 1888 99 which presented his earliest papers
