Studies In Chinese Art:

Studies in Chinese Art Te-K'UN Cheng, 1983-12-01 Tradition and Transformation Judith G. Smith, 2005 Tradition and Transformation commemorates Chu Tsing Li's achievements as an educator and scholar with essays by friends and former students marking his long teaching career at the University of Kansas and in particular his contribution to the field of Asian studies. The topics of the essays range from early Chinese art history to contemporary Chinese art. When Chu Tsing Li arrived at the University of Kansas in 1966 it was with a mission to establish the University as the leader in the Midwest and eventually one of the important centers in the United States for the study of Asian art. By the end of his teaching career in 1990 the program in Asian art had produced specialists in Chinese, Japanese and Korean art and had trained and inspired numerous doctoral students many of whom have gone on to become established scholars in their own right. In 1978 Dr Li became the first Judith Harris Murphy Distinguished Professor of Art History at the University of Kansas. Studies in the Art of China and South-East Asia Michael Sullivan, 1991 This second volume of Professor Sullivan's studies covers his work on modern Chinese art and the art and archaeology of South East Asia. Discovering Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2006

Studies in Chinese Art Dekun Zheng, 1983 This volume comprises eight articles that fall into three groups: surveys of Chinese art and archaeology and their interrelationships; the exhibition of Chinese archaeological finds; and an account of Dunhuang studies in China up to 1947: animal styles, floral patterns and yinyang wuxing in Chinese art and Chinese epigraphy.

A Companion to Chinese Art Martin J. Powers, Katherine R. Tsang, 2022-04-26 Exploring the history of art in China from its earliest incarnations to the present day, this comprehensive volume includes two dozen newly commissioned essays spanning the theories, genres and media central to Chinese art and theory throughout its history. Provides an exceptional collection of essays promoting a comparative understanding of China's long record of cultural production. Brings together an international team of scholars from East and West whose contributions range from an overview of pre-modern theory to those exploring calligraphy, fine painting, sculpture, accessories and more. Articulates the direction in which the field of Chinese art history is moving as well as providing a roadmap for historians interested in comparative study or theory. Proposes new and revisionist interpretations of the literati tradition which has long been an important staple of Chinese art history. Offers a rich insight into China's social and political institutions, religious and cultural practices and intellectual traditions alongside Chinese art history theory and criticism. Studies in Chinese and Islamic Art: Chinese art Basil Gray, 1985 Basil Gray's publications introduced Chinese and Islamic art to Europe. This volume covers Chinese painting, its philosophical roots, influence on Japanese and European artists and its impact on Western visitors and collectors. It also discusses lacquer and metalwork attributions and reports on modern Chinese and Japanese museums.
