emergence of a modern Ireland that while focused firmly on the island and its traditions moves beyond the nationalist narrative of the twentieth century to provide a history of late early modern Ireland for the twenty first century The Arms-Bearing Woman and British Theatre in the Age of Revolution, 1789-1815 Sarah Burdett, 2023-05-20 This book explores shifting representations and receptions of the arms bearing woman on the British stage during a period in which she comes to stand in Britain as a striking symbol of revolutionary chaos The book makes a case for viewing the British Romantic theatre as an arena in which the significance of the armed woman is constantly remodelled and reappropriated to fulfil diverse ideological functions Used to challenge as well as to enforce established notions of sex and gender difference she is fashioned also as an allegorical tool serving both to condemn and to champion political and social rebellion at home and abroad Magnifying heroines who appear on stage wielding pistols brandishing daggers thrusting swords and even firing explosives the study spotlights the intricate and often surprising ways in which the stage amazon interacts with Anglo French Anglo Irish Anglo German and Anglo Spanish debates at varying moments across the French revolutionary and Napoleonic campaigns At the same time it foregrounds the extent to which new dramatic genres imported from Europe notably the German Sturm und Drang and the French derived melodrama facilitate possibilities at the turn of the nineteenth century for a refashioned female warrior whose degree of agency destructiveness and heroism surpasses that of her tragic and sentimental predecessors Representing and Interrogating Dueling, Caning, and Fencing during the British Romantic Period William D. Brewer, 2025-02-21 Representing and Interrogating Dueling Caning and Fencing during the British Romantic Period examines Romantic era representations of physical interpersonal conflict and the ways in which they reflect challenge and subvert gender roles class hierarchies and racial and ethnic stereotypes Along with fictional depictions of one on one physical aggression by writers such as Mary Robinson William Godwin Walter Scott Lord Byron and Mary Shelley it considers historical accounts of honor violence While recent studies of honor disputes during the Romantic period have tended to focus on the codified formal duel this book considers other forms of physical aggression as well including unritualized duels assassinations canings public fencing bouts boxing matches and brawls William Brewer argues that many Romantic era Britons found the aristocratic chivalric code compatible with bourgeois commercial values Although the middle classes were on the ascendant during the decades before the Great Reform Bill British society continued to affirm the chivalric ideals of honor physical courage duty service loyalty and reverence toward women Romantic period representations and interrogations of physical conflict and toxic masculinity along with the affirmative portrayals in Mary Shelley s fiction of pacifistic and nurturing models of masculinity continue to resonate today and testify to the ongoing struggle to contend with and regulate interpersonal aggression
