Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert, 2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1/4 x 18 in or 33 7/8 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1/500 000 and 1/1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4.5 million in funding support The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe North Africa and Western Asia Scholars and libraries should find it essential It is also for students travelers lovers of fine cartography and anyone eager to retrace Alexander s eastward marches cross the Alps with Hannibal traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St Paul or ponder the roads aqueducts and defense works of the Roman Empire For the new millennium the Barrington Atlas brings the ancient past back to life in an unforgettably vivid and inspiring way

Map by Map Directory A Map by Map Directory to the Barrington Atlas is available online http://assets.press.princeton.edu/B_ATLAS/B_ATLAS.PDF and in a separate two volume print edition of close to 1 500 pages The Directory is designed to provide information about every place or feature in the Barrington Atlas The section for each map comprises a concise text drawing attention to special difficulties in mapping a region such as extensive landscape change since antiquity or uneven modern exploration a listing of every name and feature on the map with basic data about the period of occupation the modern equivalents of ancient placenames the modern country within which they are located and brief references to relevant ancient testimony or modern studies a bibliography of works cited The Map by Map Directory is an essential accompaniment to the Barrington Atlas As a uniquely rich comprehensive up to date distillation of evidence and scholarship it has no match elsewhere and opens the way to an immense variety of further research initiatives

A Cultural History of Work in Antiquity Ephraim Lytle, 2020-09-17 Winner of the 2020 PROSE Award for Multivolume Reference Humanities The world of work saw marked developments over the course of antiquity These were driven by social and economic changes especially growth in market trade and related phenomena like urbanization and specialization Although the self sufficient agrarian household continued to prevail economic realities everywhere intervened Corresponding changes include the emergence of archaeologically distinct workplaces and even in certain times and places preindustrial factories A diversity of workplace cultures often defied dominant gender and other social norms Across an increasingly connected Mediterranean world work contributed to and was in turn structured by mobility Other striking developments included the emergence of state sponsored leisure activities that offered respite from toil for all social classes Through an exploration of these and other themes this volume offers a reappraisal of ancient work and its relationship to Greek and Roman culture A Cultural History of Work in Antiquity presents an overview of the period with essays on economies representations of work workplaces work cultures technology mobility society politics and leisure

The Archaeology of the Colonized Michael Given, 2004 This book investigates the experience of the colonized in their landscape setting and proposes an archaeology of taxation to investigate the relationship between local community and central control

The Oxford Handbook of Greek Cities in the Roman Empire, 2024-11-22 This handbook provides the first comprehensive treatment of the Greek cities in the Roman Empire The poleis are studied here both as urban forms with a specific organization of space and specific public buildings and as socio political entities with specific institutions and social hierarchies The contributions cover all the important aspects of civic life and present the on going debates on the degree of integration and autonomy uniformization and diversity of the Greek civic model in the Roman Empire One of the main guidelines of the handbook is the issue of the impact of Roman rule on the long lasting Greek model of political social and spatial organization Geographically the volume covers the whole Roman Empire with a focus on regions where the Greek polis was the dominant form of organization such as mainland Greece the Aegean Islands Asia Minor Syria and the Black Sea region In addition to that the Greek cities of Sicily and Egypt as well as more isolated Greek settlements such as Cyrene in North Africa are also considered The chronological scope of the handbook runs from a community's integration into the Roman Empire varying depending on the region until the 3rd c AD when the epigraphic documentation strongly decreases and some important changes make way for the transition to Late Antiquity

A Companion to the Archaeology of the Roman Empire, 2 Volume Set Barbara Burrell, 2024-03-13 A one of a kind exploration of archaeological evidence from the Roman Empire between 44 BCE and 337 CE In A Companion to the

Archaeology of the Roman Empire distinguished scholar and archaeologist Professor Barbara Burrell delivers an illuminating and wide ranging discussion of peoples institutions and their material remains across the Roman Empire Divided into two parts the book begins by focusing on the unifying factors institutions and processes that affected the entire empire This ends with a chapter by Professor Greg Woolf Ronald J Mellor Professor of Ancient History at UCLA which summarizes and enlarges upon the themes and contributions of the volume Meanwhile the second part brings out local patterns and peculiarities within the archaeological remains of the City of Rome as well as almost every province of its empire Each chapter is written by a noted scholar whose career has focused on the subject Chronological coverage for each chapter is formally 44 BCE to 337 CE but since material remains are not always so closely datable most chapters center on the first three centuries of the Common Era plus or minus 50 years In addition the book is amply illustrated and includes new and little known finds from oft ignored provinces Readers will also find A thorough introduction to the peoples and operations of the Roman Empire including not just how the center affected the periphery Romanization but how peripheral provinces operated on their own and among their neighbors Comprehensive explorations of local patterns within individual provinces Contributions from a diverse panel of leading scholars in the field A unique form of organization that brings out systems across the empire such as transport across sea rivers and roads monetary systems pottery and foodways the military construction and technology Perfect for graduate and advanced undergraduate students of archaeology and the history of the Roman Empire A Companion to the Archaeology of the Roman Empire will also earn a place in the libraries of professional archaeologists in other fields including Mayanists medievalists and Far Eastern scholars seeking comparanda and bibliography on other imperial structures

Ancient Greeks West and East Gocha R. Tsetskhladze, 1999 Offering new evidence and interpretations of the relationship of Greeks and local peoples throughout the ancient world this richly illustrated collection of papers shows how Greeks viewed other people and how the establishment of Greek colonies culturally enriched both locals and Greeks The volume is richly illustrated

From Rome to Byzantium Michael Grant, 2015-03-04 Byzantium was dismissed by Gibbon in the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire and his Victorian successors as a decadent dark oriental culture given up to intrigue forbidden pleasure and refined cruelty This great empire founded by Constantine as the seat of power in the East began to flourish in the fifth century AD after the fall of Rome yet its culture and history have been neglected by scholars in comparison to the privileging of interest in the Western and Roman Empire Michael Grant s latest book aims to compensate for that neglect and to provide an insight into the nature of the Byzantine Empire in the fifth century the prevalence of Christianity the enormity and strangeness of the landscape of Asia Minor and the history of invasion prior to the genesis of the empire Michael Grant s narrative is lucid and colourful as always lavishly illustrated with photographs and maps He successfully provides an examination of a comparatively unexplored area and constructs the history of an empire which rivals the former richness and diversity of a now fallen Rome
