Wilson, 2014-04-29 Many enquiries into the state of accounting education training undertaken in several countries over the past 40 years have warned that it must change if it is to be made more relevant to students to the accounting profession and to stakeholders in the wider community This book s over riding aim is to provide a comprehensive and authoritative source of reference which defines the domain of accounting education training and which provides a critical overview of the state of this domain including emerging and cutting edge issues as a foundation for facilitating improved accounting education training scholarship and research in order to enhance the educational base of accounting practice The Routledge Companion to Accounting Education highlights the key drivers of change whether in the field of practice on the one hand e g increased regulation globalisation risk and complexity or from developments in the academy on the other e g pressures to embed technology within the classroom or to meet accreditation criteria on the other Thirty chapters written by leading scholars from around the world are grouped into seven themed sections which focus on different facets of their respective themes including student curriculum pedagogic and assessment considerations Practices, Profession and Pedagogy in Accounting Jane Baxter, Chris Poullaos, 2009 Canvass a broad range of issues including accounting theory accounting history international accounting management accounting internal auditing and accounting education The contributions range in style from thought pieces to histories to cross sectional and case study analyses Learning Transformational Leadership Stig Ytterstad, Johan Olaisen, 2023-01-01 Based on empirical research theoretical frameworks and practice examples this book presents a deep dive into the topic of transformational leadership In particular it investigates whether participants in transformational leader courses will practice more potent transformation leader qualities after completion of the courses than before It examines which elements of leadership development can describe what happens in this intervention as well as whether there is any covariation between transformation leadership and Sternberg s learning style and the role that a coach plays in the development of transformational leadership An engaging and valuable resource for students scholars and practitioners the book includes pluralistic frameworks conceptual tools and lessons for further work It covers exciting issues for the technical social and managerial professions involved in collaborative creative work across disciplines Innovations in Technology Enhanced Learning Liz Bacon,Craig Speelman,2015-09-18 Innovations in Technology Enhanced Learning edited by Dr Anton Ravindran and Professor Liz Bacon is a collection of state of the art research papers discussing innovations in the area of technology enhanced learning in adult education It was inspired by ideas presented at the annual Computer Science Education Innovation and Technology Conferences organized and administered by Global Science and Technology Forum GSTF Input for the twelve chapters have been sourced from ten geographically dispersed countries from across the world USA Spain Portugal UK Bahrain Saudi Arabia Malaysia Singapore Iran and Australia providing a truly international perspective on the field With rapid developments in the technology and delivery mechanisms including the development of MOOCs Massive Open Online Courses online learning is in the process of revolutionising higher education which makes this book all the more relevant and timely Methods and Paradigms in Education Research Ling, Lorraine,Ling, Peter,2016-10-31 The tools used in data collection have the ability to influence the ways information is perceived and generated Analyzing research processes is a concept that can be overlooked though is as important as the information itself Methods and Paradigms in Education Research addresses the innovative formulaic approaches taken in research to challenge their effectiveness Featuring coverage on selection forms and analytical procedures of data this publication is essential for researchers students and academicians seeking current information on understanding research methodology Learning Patterns in Higher Education David Gijbels,Vincent Donche,John T. E. Richardson,Jan D. Vermunt,2013-09-11 Learning Patterns in Higher Education brings together a cutting edge international team of contributors to critically review our current understanding of how students and adults learn how differences and changes in the way students learn can be measured in a valid and reliable way and how the quality of student learning may be enhanced There is substantial evidence that students in higher education have a characteristic way of learning sometimes called their learning orientation Biggs 1988 learning style Evans et al 2010 or learning pattern Vermunt and Vermetten 2004 However recent research in the field of student learning has resulted in multi faceted and sometimes contradictory results which may reflect conceptual differences and differences in measurement of student learning in each of the studies This book deals with the need for further clarification of how students learn in higher education in the 21st century and to what extent the measurements often used in learning pattern studies are still up to date or can be advanced with present methodological and statistical insights to capture the most important differences and changes in student learning The contributions in the book are organized in two parts a first conceptual and psychological part in which the dimensions of student learning in the 21st century are discussed and a second empirical part in which questions related to how students learning can be measured and how it develops are considered Areas covered include Cultural influences on learning patterns Predicting learning outcomes Student centred learning environments and self directed learning Mathematics learning This indispensable book covers multiple conceptual perspectives on how learning patterns can be described and effects and developments can be measured and will not only be helpful for learning researchers as such but also for educational researchers from the broad domain of educational psychology motivation psychology and instructional sciences who are interested in student motivation self regulated learning effectiveness of innovative learning environments as well as assessment and evaluation of student characteristics and learning process variables
