Studying Contemporary American Film A Guide To Movie Analysis:

Studying Contemporary American Film Thomas Elsaesser, Warren Buckland, 2002 How should the student set about exploring contemporary American cinema This book takes an innovative approach to film analysis each chapter examines the assumptions behind one traditional theory of film distils a method of analysis from it and then analyses a contemporary American movie It then goes beyond the traditional theory by analysing the same movie using a more current theory and method Traditional theories featured include mise en scene criticism auteurism structural analysis narratology studies of realism psychoanalysis and feminism More current theories include new and post Lacanian approaches to subjectivity cognitivism computerized statistical style analysis the philosophy of modal logic new media theory and deconstruction Films analysed include Chinatown Die Hard The Silence of the Lambs Jurassic Park The Lost World Back to the Future Lost Highway plus two European imitations of American filmmaking The English Patient and The Fifth Element All students of film and popular culture will find this book the ideal preparation for writing clear well structured detailed analyses of their favourite American movies

Studying Contemporary American Movies Thomas Elsaesser, Warren Buckland, 2002

Studying Contemporary American Movies Thomas Elsaesser, 2002 Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies Warren Buckland, 2009-06-03 Film theory no longer gets top billing or plays a starring role in film studies today as critics proclaim that theory is dead and we are living in a post theory moment While theory may be out of the limelight it remains an essential key to understanding the full complexity of cinema one that should not be so easily discounted or discarded In this volume contributors explore recent popular movies through the lens of film theory beginning with industrial economic analysis before moving into a predominately aesthetic and interpretive framework The Hollywood films discussed cover a wide range from 300 to Fifty First Dates from Brokeback Mountain to Lord of the Rings from Spider Man 3 to Fahrenheit 9 11 from Saw to Raiders of the Lost Ark and much more Individual essays consider such topics as the rules that govern new blockbuster franchises the posthumanist realism of digital cinema video game adaptations increasingly restricted stylistic norms the spatial stories of social networks like YouTube the mainstreaming of queer culture and the cognitive paradox behind enjoyable viewing of traumatic events onscreen With its cast of international film scholars Film Theory and Contemporary Hollywood Movies demonstrates the remarkable contributions theory can offer to film studies and moviegoers alike

Mind the Screen Jaap Kooijman, Patricia Pisters, Wanda Strauven, 2008 Mind the Screen pays tribute to the work of the pioneering European film scholar Thomas Elsaesser author of several volumes on media studies and cinema culture Covering a full scope of issues arising from the author's work from melodrama and mediated memory to avant garde practices media archaeology and the audiovisual archive this collection elaborates and expands on Elsaesser's original ideas along the topical lines of cinephilia the historical imaginary the contemporary European cinematic experience YouTube and images of terrorism and double occupancy among other topics Contributions from well known artists and scholars such as

Mieke Bal and Warren Buckland explore a range of media concepts and provide a mirror for the multi faceted types of screens active in Elsaesser s work including the television set video installation the digital interface the mobile phone display and of course the hallowed silver screen of our contemporary film culture Hollywood Puzzle Films Warren Buckland,2014-05-30 From Inception to The Lake House moviegoers are increasingly flocking to narratologically complex puzzle films These puzzle movies borrow techniques like fragmented spatio temporal reality time loops unstable characters with split identities or unreliable narrators more commonly attributed to art cinema and independent films The essays in Hollywood Puzzle Films examine the appropriation of puzzle film techniques by contemporary Hollywood dramas and blockbusters through questions of narrative time and altered realities Analyzing movies like Source Code The Butterfly Effect Donnie Darko D j Vu and adaptations of Philip K Dick contributors explore the implications of Hollywood s new movie mind games Cultural Studies Approaches in the Study of Eastern European Cinema Andrea Virginás,2017-01-06 The spatial the bodily and the memory turn in the humanities and cultural studies are well canonized developments These features of our being in the world are fundamental in the medium of cinema which is an art of spaces bodies and memories increasingly so today when the analogue platform has been running parallel with the digitalized method of filmmaking The three nodal concepts define the tripartite structure of this volume composed of an overview study and twelve case studies of post 1989 Eastern European film and cinema The overarching questions of space representation and construction bodies on screen issues of national identification in a postcolonial framework and cinema as a form of cultural memory are explored through the lens of specific national cinemas or contemporary Croatian Hungarian Polish Serbian Slovakian Slovenian and Romanian films In addition to investigating the cohesive forces that mark the postcommunist Eastern European region as a coherent cultural entity in its cinematic representations the volume also stands as a witness to the importance of transnational approaches Mourning Films Richard Armstrong,2012-09-18 The first in depth study of its subject this book seeks to account for a type of modernist film that revolves around bereavement Identifying the roots of the genre in classical melodrama and horror cinema and tracing perennial themes and aesthetic devices through to the European and American intellectual melodramas of the postwar decades the book provides a taxonomy of characteristics In the course of detailed case studies the book deploys the film theory of Gilles Deleuze and Daniel Frampton while making use of Freudian psychoanalysis and present day grief counseling theory In making its case for the new genre the book reflects upon the ways in which the very notion of genre has in the post classical period responded to changing exhibition patterns the rise of domestic spectatorship and the proliferation of Web based film literature Cinematic Terror Tony Shaw,2014-11-20 The first history of cinema s treatment of terrorism from the birth of film to today The Mind-Game Film Thomas Elsaesser,2021-03-28 This book represents the culmination of Thomas Elsaesser s intense and passionate thinking about the Hollywood mind game film from the previous two decades In order to answer what the mind game film is why they exist and how they function Elsaesser maps the industrial institutional challenges and constraints facing Hollywood and the broader philosophic horizon within which American cinema thrives today He demonstrates how the Persistence of Hollywood continues as it has adapted to include new twists and turns as well as revisions of past concerns as film moves through the 21st century Through examples such as Minority Report Mulholland Drive Source Code and Back to the Future Elsaesser explores how mind game films challenge us and play games with our perception of reality creating skepticism and self doubt He also highlights the mind game film s tendency to intervene in a complex fashion in the political moment by questioning the dominant power s intent to program both body and mind alike Prescient and compelling The Mind Game Film will appeal to students scholars and enthusiasts of media studies film studies philosophy and politics
