Supporting Love How Love Works In Couple Relationships:

Supporting Love Johannes Neuhauser, 2001 Love's Hidden Symmetry Bert Hellinger, Gunthard Weber, Hunter Beaumont, 1998 Integrating Psychodrama and Systemic Constellation Work Ronald Anderson, Karen Carnabucci, 2011-10-15 Systemic Constellation Work is a rapidly growing experiential healing process that is being embraced by a variety of helping professionals worldwide This book explores the history principles and methodology of this approach and offers a detailed comparison with psychodrama explaining how each method can enhance the other To the Heart of the Matter Bert Hellinger, 2003 In his courses and seminars Bert Hellinger works with patients to map out family constellations in a highly concentrated form This book documents for the first time these highly intensive short term therapies These sessions provide insights into the hidden realities and broken relationships revealing new perspectives

The Ultimate Guide to Love Hseham Amrahs, 2025-01-20 The Love Guide also tackles some of the most common issues that can arise in relationships such as communication problems jealousy and infidelity It offers practical advice and strategies for dealing with these challenges as well as tips for enhancing the positive aspects of a relationship such as intimacy and emotional connection The Ultimate Guide to Love is a celebration of the power of love to transform lives and bring people closer together It is a reminder that no matter how complex and challenging love may be at times it is ultimately worth the effort This book is the result of years of research reflection and personal experience It is intended to be a roadmap for anyone who wants to cultivate deeper more meaningful connections with themselves and others Whether you are single or in a relationship young or old this guide has something to offer you Learning to Love Sonya E Pritzker, 2024-07-10 Learning to Love offers a range of perspectives on the embodied relational affective and sociopolitical project of learning to love at the New Life Center for Holistic Growth a popular mind body spirit bookstore and practice space in northeast China in the early part of the 21st century This intimate form of self care exists alongside the fast moving growing capitalist society of contemporary China and has emerged as an understandable response to the pressures of Chinese industrialized life in the early 21st century Opening with an investigation of the complex ways newcomers to the center suffered a sense of being off both in and with the world at multiple scales Learning to Love then examines how new horizons of possibility are opened as people interact with one another as well as with a range of aesthetic objects at New Life Author Sonya Pritzker draws upon the core concepts of scalar intimacy a participatory discursive process in which people position themselves in relation to others as well as dominant ideologies concepts and ideals and scalar inquiry the process through which speakers interrogate these forms their relationship with them and their participation in reproducing them In demonstrating the collaborative interrogation of culture history and memory she examines how these exercises in physical mental and spiritual self care allow participants to grapple with past social harms and forms of injustice how historical systems of power including both patriarchal and governance structures continue in the present and how they might be transformed in the future By examining the interactions and relational experiences from New Life Learning to Love offers a range of novel theoretical interventions into political subjectivity temporality and intergenerational trauma healing

Black eyes crossed the sea Maria Cristina Francisco, 2020-07-19 Brazil is a racialized country Its social history is recorded in the spaces occupied by the colonial invasion the domination of native peoples slavery and European immigration Walking through this large territory it is clear that this story has imprinted marks on the land colonized bodies and minds which translates and is updated daily in relationships in the purposeful invisibility of a part of the population Everyone participates in this system black white and non white and it is essential that this is known The racist ideology propagating ideas of inferiority and subordination of certain peoples crosses everyone although from different places and experiences and oppressed peoples black and indigenous suffer immensely from the consequences of social inequalities leading to physical and psychological illness The white race enjoys opportunities but exempts itself from responsibility in an unfair system The African diaspora portrayed in this book Black Eyes Crossed the Sea reveals the impact of the psychic effects caused by racism and its consequences in inter and intrapsychic relations singularly in black people The theme is a call with the intention of sensitizing professionals from different areas of knowledge to understand what is inscribed in addition to skin color It is a statement where everyone needs to recognize and review themselves It is a door that opens in the hope of elaborating and transforming thinking about values colonialist beliefs and a possible emancipation Going through the theoretical bases of therapeutic action based on Wilhelm Reich s corporal analysis on Alexander Lowen s Bioenergetics on David Boadella s Biosynthesis on Frantz Fanon and Neusa Santos Souza s psychoanalysis and on Pichon Rivi re s operative group the corporal work is highlighted stage of individual and collective history with a view to this transforming place Not only starting from verbalization but having the body as a protagonist home to joy suffering and trauma A group experience is also shown in the encounter of black bodies a place for exchanging reflections and experiences in relation to blackness and whiteness which over time proved to be affirmative in the strengthening of identity In the words recorded here it is stated how vital it is for institutions that aim to transmit knowledge to review themselves so as not to reproduce behaviors that lead to inequalities injustices suffering and illness This book is about believing fraternal value respect caring for yourself and others so that you can have better days for everyone

Family Constellations Damian Janus, 2022-02-16 Based on the knowledge derived from family constellations a therapeutic method developed by Bert Hellinger Janus investigates other psychotherapeutic approaches and introduces a new perspective on human behavior Janus addresses debated issues like nature versus nurture the role of unconscious factors in shaping behavior and the structure of the conscience arguing that family constellations offer new understandings for the fields of psychotherapy psychology anthropology and religious studies

Landscapes of the Heart Juliet Grayson, 2016-07-01 In this book teacher and psychotherapist Juliet Grayson gives us privileged access to her unique client sessions Following several couples journeys through psychosexual therapy to more loving relationships we witness her rich blend of life changing approaches including Pesso Boyden System Psychomotor PBSP the potent new methodology she has helped to pioneer in the UK Exploring both the practical and theoretical aspects of her work Juliet shakes our assumptions and shows ways to improve and ultimately heal our most intimate relationships This is a ground breaking book valuable for lay readers and therapists alike Understanding Fandom Mark Duffett, 2013-08-29 Fans used to be seen as an overly obsessed fraction of the audience In the last few decades shifts in media technology and production have instead made fandom a central mode of consumption A range of ideas has emerged to explore different facets of this growing phenomenon With a foreword by Matt Hills Understanding Fandom introduces the whole field of fan research by looking at the history of debate key paradigms and methodological issues The book discusses insights from scholars working with fans of different texts genres and media forms including television and popular music Mark Duffett shows that fan research is an emergent interdisciplinary field with its own key thinkers a tradition that is distinct from both textual analysis and reception studies Drawing on a range of debates from media studies cultural studies and psychology Duffett argues that fandom is a particular kind of engagement with the power relations of media culture
