David Frost, Judy Durrant

Supporting Development Action:

Teacher-Led Development Work David Frost, Judy Durrant, 2013-12-19 This is a practical step by step guide to how the quality of teaching and learning in schools can be improved through the development of organizational capacity and professional networking Whether you re involved in the National College of School Leadership s Networked Learning Communities scheme or simply wish to enable teachers to initiate and sustain education change this replacement to David Frost s earlier Reflective Action Planning for Teachers will be of great benefit The book demonstrates how secondary and primary teachers can contribute fully to the improvement of their school while pursuing their own continued professional development and gaining accreditation through school based work It provides guidelines for school managers higher education tutors external consultants and LEA advisors establishing school based support and gives tried and tested flexible proformas checklists and other practical tools that are ideal for training INSET or a personal audit Learning from Health Action Zones Linda Bauld, 2002-02-02 Since they were established HAZs have been at the forefront of attempts to modernise health services and to reduce health inequalities As a result there is much to learn from the efforts they have made But the path that HAZs have taken and the learning that they have generated is not a straightforward one Proposed Master Plan Update Development Actions, Seattle-Tacoma (Sea-Tac) International Airport, King County ,1996 Mali International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2015-10-22 This Technical Assistance Report discusses key recommendations for implementing fiscal decentralization in Mali It proposes to set an optimal administrative organization of the territory which should aim at building consistent and sustainable local governments that are best suited to address specific local needs In this context the regions deemed to be best suited to handle funds are envisaged to be decentralized and with large scale development actions The local government revenue should be optimized through local taxation and an efficient system of transfers from the central government should be introduced The report also proposes establishing good financial governance in Mali Enterprise Modeling Kurt Sandkuhl, Janis Stirna, Anne Persson, Matthias Wißotzki, 2014-09-15 Enterprise modeling EM methods and techniques are indispensable for understanding the present situation of an enterprise and for preparing for its future particularly in times of continuous organizational change an increasing pace of innovation new market challenges or technology advances The authors combine a detailed description of the 4EM methodology with their concrete experience gathered in projects Their book addresses the modeling procedure modeling language and modeling practices in a uniquely integrated approach It provides practical advice on common challenges faced by enterprises and offers a flexible EM method suitable for tackling those challenges Much of the work presented stems from actual research projects and has been validated with scientific methods The 4EM methodology has proven its practical value in a large number of successful development and or change management projects in industry and the public sector The book was written for anyone who wants to learn more about EM with a specific focus on how to do it in practice and or how to teach it Its main target audience thus includes instructors in the field of EM or business information systems students in Information Systems or Business Administration and practitioners working in enterprise or change management The authors describe a clear reading path for each of these audiences and complement the work with a set of slides and further teaching material available under www.4emmethod.com

Close Ties in European Local Governance Filipe Teles,Adam Gendźwiłł,Cristina Stănuș,Hubert Heinelt,2020-09-01 This book develops and tests a typology of local state society relations To deliver such a comparative study on institutionalized relations between local government and societal actors at the municipal level in Europe the book identifies and classifies country specific patterns of these institutionalized governance networks This work explores the diversity within these institutionalized networks approaching it from a strong comparative perspective that is anchored on a new typology allowing a more robust analysis of the identifiable patterns It is a study with appeal to scholars and students of local government public administration and political science as well as to those pursuing this debate and implementing similar agendas as practitioners
