Supreme Courage Heroic Stories From 150 Years Of The Vc:

Supreme Courage Sir Peter De la Billière, 2004 The most inspiring stories of VC winners since the medal's inception 150 years ago Includes stories from Australia New Zealand Canada India and Denmark VC Heroes - The True Stories Behind Every VC Winner Since World War Two Nigel Cawthorne, 2012-10-11 For a nation with a long and proud military tradition one token stands above all the others as a mark of recognition for the ultimate acts of individual feats of arms the Victoria Cross Awarded for one reason alone to mark extreme acts of great heroism by British and Commonwealth servicemen in the face of the enemy it is unquestionably the hardest club in the world to gain entrance to Its holders ordinary soldiers sailors and airmen are linked by an uncommon bond of exceptional bravery displayed often at great personal risk and against impossible odds The VC has been awarded only sixteen times since the end of the Second World War in 1945 Some of these awards were made to recipients who paid the ultimate sacrifice while demonstrating gallantry beyond the call of duty Forged in battle from the shell scarred hills of Korea to the windswept marshland of East Falkland and today's counter insurgency operations in Iraq and Afghanistan each one of these VC has a uniquely inspiring tale to tell These are their incredible stories

D-Day Documents Paul Winter, 2014-07-31 Published in partnership with the National Archives D Day Documents is a commemorative collection of previously unpublished documents marking the 70th anniversary of the Normandy landings This unprecedented book contains not only 21st Army Group intelligence reports on Omaha Beach RAF Photographic Reconnaissance prints and the ship's log of HMS Warspite but various other important official documents covering different aspects of Operations Neptune and Overlord Crucially this single volume brings together for the first time the war diary entries of all Anglo Canadian spear head units and regiments who landed in France on 6 June 1944 A unique publication which celebrates one of the most momentous days in modern military history D Day Documents will fascinate anyone with an interest in the Second World War as well as offering an invaluable primary source for military historians The Literary Review, 2005

VCs of the First World War: 1914 Gerald Gliddon, 2012-05-30 During the opening four months of the First World War no fewer than forty six soldiers from the British and Commonwealth armies were awarded the Victoria Cross Britain's highest award for gallantry In a series of biographies Gerald Gliddon examines the men and the dramatic events that led to the award of this most coveted of medals and explores the post war experiences of those who survived These men ordinary soldiers from widely differing social backgrounds acted with valour above and beyond the call of duty Their stories and experiences offer a fresh perspective on the opening stages of the war to end wars The Complete Victoria Cross Kevin Brazier, 2015-09-30 This fully revised paperback edition of the complete chronological record of VC holders is an essential work of reference for every student of military history All the British and Commonwealth servicemen who have been awarded the highest honour for exceptional acts of bravery and self sacrifice are commemorated here The first VCs awarded for the Crimean War and in the nineteenth century colonial wars are described as are the VCs awarded in the world wars of the twentieth century and the most recent VCs awarded during present day conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan The extraordinary exploits recounted in this fascinating book make unforgettable reading VCs of the First World War: Road to Victory 1918 Gerald Gliddon,2014-02-03 By August 1918 fortune was on the side of the Allies America was increasing its contribution of troops and equipment substantially the morale of the German Army was sinking as it failed to deliver the desired knock out blow and Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig found a new confidence firmly believing that the Allies could at last push the Germans out of France and Belgium This volume of the best selling VCs of the First World War series covers the fifty days of the Allied advance from 8 August to 26 September 1918 Arranged chronologically it tells the story of the sixty four VC winners during this period The recipients came from many countries including Britain Canada Australia and New Zealand some never lived to know that they had been awarded for their extraordinary bravery while others returned home to face an uncertain future This is their story Gallipoli Victoria Cross Hero John Hamilton,2020-01-24 The WWI biography of a Victory Cross recipient who fought bravely at Gallipoli only to be shunned after the war for speaking out against it The son of a former Premier of Western Australia Hugo Throssell volunteered to join the Imperial Australian Force during the Great War He was shipped to Gallipoli in 1915 with the 10th Australian Light Horse Regiment which fought in a dismounted role He was involved in the famous charge of the 10th Light Horse at the Battle of the Nek and the Battle of Hill 60 Throssell was severely wounded during the Battle of Hill 60 but refused to leave his post until the fighting was over As soon as his wounds were dressed he went back into the firing line until he was ordered to stand down by the Medical Officer His determination saved his battalion at a critical moment After the war Throssell became an outspoken opponent of war for which he was widely condemned It also made employment difficult and he fell into debt When he tried to pawn his Victoria Cross he was offered only ten shillings He committed suicide at forty nine Meticulously researched and beautifully written this is a moving tale of heroism and tragedy Special Forces Hero Thomas Harder,2021-03-23 Until the German occupation of his native Denmark in April 1940 Anders Lassen had no interest in the War Yet over the next five years he became a highly decorated Special Forces legend and the only non Commonwealth recipient of the Victoria Cross After taking part in a mutiny on board a Danish ship he made his way to Scotland He first joined the Special Operations Executive before serving with the Small Scale Raiding Force Special Air Service and Special Boat Service He took part in the daring Operation Postmaster off West Africa and raided the Channel Islands and the Normandy coast He saw most action in Eastern Mediterranean fighting in Crete the Dodecanese Yugoslavia mainland Greece and finally Italy In April 1945 now a major aged 24 he was killed at Lake Comacchio where his gallantry earned him his posthumous VC This superb biography is not just a worthy tribute to an outstanding soldier but a superb account of the numerous special force operations Anders was involved in VCs Cambrai 1917 Gerald Gliddon,2012-02-29 Featuring the careers of forty three men this volume tells the story of the Battle of Cambrai famous for being the first occasion when tanks were used en masse in battle Its first day was so successful that church bells in Britain were rung in anticipation of a great victory A tank crewman numbers among the recipients of the VC Containing biographies of a broad cross section of men from Britain and the Dominions including Canada Australia New Zealand and even the Ukraine It includes a sapper a former miner who chose to stay with his seriously wounded colleague underground and die with him rather than obey an order to leave him and save his own life a maverick lieutenant colonel who was relieved of his command and a padre who worked tirelessly over a period of three nights bringing at least twenty five men to safety from No Man s Land who otherwise would have been left to die
