Child Welfare ,1929 The Progress of Economics Warren Benjamin Catlin,1962 Tender Violence in US Schools Natalee Kēhaulani Bauer,2022-11-23 Within educational research the over disciplining of Black and Indigenous students is most often presented as a problem located within pathologized or misunderstood communities That is theories and proposed solutions tend toward those that ask how we can make students of color from particular backgrounds more suited to US educational standards rather than questioning the racist roots of those standards Tender Violence in US Schools takes as a provocation this discipline gap in exploring a thus far unconsidered stance and asking how white women the majority of US teachers have historically understood their roles in the disciplining of Black and Indigenous students and how and why their role has been constructed over time and space in service to institutions of the white settler colonial state English Teaching Forum ,2006 Teaching Hispanic Children Toni Griego Jones,Mary Lou Fuller,2003 Griego Jones and Fuller present information about the role of national origins and cultural backgrounds in teaching and learning and why it is important for teachers to know about culture in general and about Hispanic cultural groups in particular The history and background on culture is intended to provide knowledge and a deeper understanding of the lives of Hispanic children in the United States and to help teachers and prospective teachers expand their professional perspectives In writing about classroom practice and how to work with family and parents the authors have tried to directly address points identified in educational literature as effective practices for Hispanic children There is a need for educators to understand their own thinking about Hispanic populations to reflect on their knowledge attitudes and beliefs about populations that have long been part of the American landscape but are now becoming a more visible part of it The theme of reflection is carried out throughout each chapter with questions that will guide the reader to reflect on the content of the chapter and on the implications for themselves as professional educators Provides an overview and demographic breakdown of the Hispanic population including national origin time in this country geographical region income level and age A theme of reflection is carried throughout with reflection exercises at the end of each chapter Through various activities preservice and inservice teachers are encouraged to begin developing their own methods and approaches to connecting with Hispanic students Authors Notes is a boxed feature in which the authors describe and reflect on their own experience as teacher educators
