Teaching Composition Around The Pacific Rim Politics And Pedagogy:

Teaching Composition Around the Pacific Rim Mark Newell Brock, Larry Walters, 1992 Considers both political and pedagogical issues related to the teaching of English composition to Asian Pacific students The possible consequences of imposing Western rhetoric are analyzed and use of current approaches to the teaching of composition are examined in the context of the Pacific Rim Language and Language-in-Education Planning in the Pacific Basin R.B. Kaplan, Richard B. Baldauf Jr., 2013-03-14 Language and Language in Education Planning in the Pacific Basin examines and reviews the ecological context including e g the historical political and educational issues of language planning in 14 countries in the Pacific basin Japan the two Koreas Taiwan the Philippines Indonesia Malaysia Brunei Darussalam Singapore Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and Vanuatu The planning goals pursued in these states are then examined in terms of an overarching view of language planning The book provides the only up to date overview and review of language policy in the region and challenges those interested in language policy and planning to think about how such goals might be achieved in the context of language ecology In a world where languages and their uses and users are changing rapidly and where governments and other political bodies are driving planned language change there is a need to understand and consider how and why language planning is done The book will be of interest to specialists interested in language and education and to more general readers wishing to understand the dynamics of history and politics and its impact on language and language in education policy decisions Teaching L2 Composition Dana R. Ferris, John Hedgcock, 2014 This popular comprehensive theory to practice text is designed to help teachers understand the task of writing L2 writers the different pedagogical models used in current composition teaching and reading writing connections Moving from general themes to specific pedagogical concerns it includes practice oriented chapters on the role of genre task construction course and lesson design writing assessment feedback error treatment and classroom language grammar vocabulary style instruction Although all topics are firmly grounded in relevant research a distinguishing feature of the text is the array of hands on practical examples materials and tasks that pre and in service teachers can use to develop the complex skills involved in teaching second language writing Each chapter includes Questions for Reflection Further Reading and Resources Reflection and Review and Application Activities An ideal text for L2 teacher preparation courses courses that include both L1 and L2 students and workshops for instructors of L2 writers in academic secondary and postsecondary settings the accessible synthesis of theory and research enables readers to see the relevance of the field s knowledge base to their own present or future classroom settings and student writers Journal of Asian Pacific Communication ,2002 Teaching Academic ESL Writing Eli Hinkel, 2003-10-17 Teaching Academic ESL Writing Practical Techniques in Vocabulary and Grammar fills an important gap in teacher professional preparation by focusing on the grammatical and lexical features that are essential for all ESL writing teachers and student writers to know The fundamental assumption is that before students of English for academic purposes can begin to successfully produce academic writing they must have the foundations of language in place the language tools grammar and vocabulary they need to build a text This text offers a compendium of techniques for teaching writing grammar and lexis to second language learners that will help teachers effectively target specific problem areas of students writing Based on the findings of current research including a large scale study of close to 1 500 non native speakers essays this book works with several sets of simple rules that collectively can make a noticeable and important difference in the quality of ESL students writing The teaching strategies and techniques are based on a highly practical principle for efficiently and successfully maximizing learners language gains Part I provides the background for the text and a sample of course curriculum guidelines to meet the learning needs of second language teachers of writing and second language writers Parts II and III include the key elements of classroom teaching what to teach and why possible ways to teach the material in the classroom common errors found in student prose and ways to teach students to avoid them teaching activities and suggestions and questions for discussion in a teacher training course Appendices to chapters provide supplementary word and phrase lists collocations sentence chunks and diagrams that teachers can use as needed The book is designed as a text for courses that prepare teachers to work with post secondary EAP students and as a professional resource for teachers of students in EAP courses

Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing Rosa M. Manchón, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2016-09-12 The Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing is an authoritative reference compendium of the theory and research on second and foreign language writing that can be of value to researchers professionals and graduate students It is intended both as a retrospective critical reflection that can situate research on L2 writing in its historical context and provide a state of the art view of past achievements and as a prospective critical analysis of what lies ahead in terms of theory research and applications Accordingly the Handbook aims to provide i foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field ii state of the art surveys of available theoretical and research basic and applied insights iii overviews of research methods in L2 writing research iv critical reflections on future developments and iv explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry Teaching

ESL Composition Dana R. Ferris, John Hedgcock, John S. Hedgcock, 2004-09-15 Presents pedagogical approaches to the teaching of ESL composition in the framework of current theoretical perspectives on second language writing processes practises and writers Technology-Enhanced Teaching and Learning of Chinese as a Foreign Language Amber Navarre, 2018-10-09 Technology Enhanced Teaching and Learning of Chinese as a Foreign Language provides new and experienced teachers of Chinese with a timely review and evaluation of the use of technology in the language classroom The book draws from Second Language Acquisition theories and empirical studies to demonstrate the use of technologies in facilitating language learning With a strong practical and pedagogical focus this is an ideal resource for current and prospective teachers of Chinese as a Foreign Language Key features include Demonstration and analysis of technologies in use Principles and methods to evaluate instructional technologies Summary tables presenting the key functions of each technology tool Online resources include up to date information on new technologies and tools to address the ever changing nature of the topic

Teaching College Writing to Diverse Student Populations Dana Ferris, 2009-06-02 Statistical and anecdotal evidence documents that even states with relatively little ethnic or cultural diversity are beginning to notice and ask questions about long term resident immigrants in their classes As shifts in student population become more widespread there is an even greater need for second language specialists composition specialists program administrators and developers in colleges and universities to understand and adapt to the needs of the changing student audience s This book is designed as an introduction to the topic of diverse second language student audiences in U S post secondary education It is appropriate for those interested in working with students in academic settings especially those students who are transitioning from secondary to post secondary education It provides a coherent synthesis and summary not only of the scope and nature of the changes but of their practical implications for program administration course design and classroom instruction particularly for writing courses For pre service teachers and those new er to the field of working with L2 student writers it offers an accessible and focused look at the audience issues with many practical suggestions For teacher educators and administrators it offers a resource that can inform their own decision making

Reconstructing Response to Student Writing Dan Melzer, 2023-08-07 In Reconstructing Response to Student Writing Dan Melzer makes the argument that writing instructors should shift the construct so that peer response and student self assessment are more central than teacher response Presenting the results of a national study of teacher and peer response and student self assessment at institutions of higher education across the United States Melzer analyzes teacher and peer response to over 1 000 pieces of student writing as well as 128 student portfolio reflection essays He draws on his analysis and on a comprehensive review of the literature on response to introduce a constructivist heuristic for response aimed at both composition instructors and instructors across disciplines Melzer argues that teachers and researchers should focus less on teacher response to individual pieces of student writing and more on engaging in dialogue with student self assessment and peer response focusing on growth and transfer rather than products and grades Reconstructing Response to Student Writing especially when taken together with Melzer s previous book Assignments across the Curriculum provides a comprehensive and large scale view of college writing and responding across the curriculum in the United States

Learning English Neil Mercer, Joan Swann, 1996 English is learnt internationally in a range of diverse settings This book examines processes of language acquisition in English as well as what it means to learn English in different parts of the world It looks at the place of English within formal education and at some of the controversies that have surrounded the teaching of English

On Second Language Writing Tony Silva, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2012-12-06 On Second Language Writing brings together internationally recognized scholars in a collection of original articles that collectively delineate and explore central issues with regard to theory research instruction assessment politics articulation with other disciplines and standards In recent years there has been a dramatic growth of interest in second language writing and writing instruction in many parts of the world Although an increasing number of researchers and teachers in both second language studies and composition studies have come to identify themselves as specialists in second language writing research and teaching practices have been dispersed into several different disciplinary and institutional contexts because of the interdisciplinary nature of the field This volume is the first to bring together prominent second language writing specialists to systematically address basic issues in the field and to consider the state of the art at the end of the century and the millennium

Feedback in Second Language Writing Ken Hyland, Fiona

Hyland, 2006-08-14 This collection of scholarly articles by leading researchers offers empirical data and analysis of complex issues related to providing feedback during the writing process
