Rethinking L1 Education in a Global Era Bill Green, Per-Olof Erixon, 2020-11-24 This book brings together a range of scholars from 10 different countries to address the contemporary state of play in national standard language education i.e. the L1 subjects. It seeks to understand the field from within a comparative historical and transnational frame. Four thematic threads are woven through the volume: educationalisation, globalisation, pluriculturalism and technologization. The chapters range over various aspects of L1 as a school subject, literature, language and literacy, reading and writing, media and digital technology, the dialogue between curriculum inquiry and Didaktik studies, the continuing relevance of Bildung, the significance of history and nation and new challenges of culture and environment in the face of climate change. The book concludes with a reflection on the prospects for L1 education today and tomorrow in a now thoroughly globalised context and accordingly deeply implicated in a necessary new project of nation re-building. The English Teacher's Handbook

Helena Ceranic, 2009-06-10 Offers practical advice on key areas of the English curriculum such as planning and teaching outstanding English lessons, developing effective assessment practices and preparing a toolkit for teaching speaking and listening. How Drama Activates Learning

Michael Anderson, Julie Dunn, 2013-08-01 How Drama Activates Learning: Contemporary Research and Practice draws together leaders in drama education and applied theatre from across the globe, including authors from Europe, North America and Australasia. It explores how learning can be activated when drama pedagogies and philosophies are applied across diverse contexts and for varied purposes. The areas explored include history, literacy, oracy and listening, health and human relationships, education, science, democracy, social justice and global citizenship, education, bullying and conflict management, criticality, digital technologies, additional language learning. Drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives, the contributors present case studies of drama and applied theatre work in school and community settings, providing rich descriptions of practice accompanied by detailed analysis underpinned by the theoretical perspectives of key thinkers from both within and beyond the field of drama.
