Reflective Teaching in Further and Adult Education Yvonne Hillier, 2009-07-01 Hillier is a friendly guide for those new to the world of further and adult education or for those finding themselves required for the first time to work towards a formal teaching qualification Richard Sykes Studies in the Education of Adults This is a useful book It systematically covers the FENTO standards for teaching and supporting learning in further education Ron Kirby Youth Policy This second edition of the best selling textbook Reflective Teaching in Further and Adult Education has been extensively revised and updated throughout The book has An updated chapter on new government policy in lifelong learning Details of the changing qualifications framework foundation degrees and e learning An expanded chapter on professional practice New sections on disability awareness working with young people and new technologies Checklists examples scenarios and figures to aid learning Chapter summaries to aid navigation of the text A guide to the FENTO standards at the end of each chapter Guides for further reading and websites A glossary of unfamiliar terms This comprehensive accessibly written textbook is a practical resource which will be invaluable to teachers in further and adult education whether in training or in service Training to Teach in Further and Adult Education David Edward Gray, Colin Griffin, Tony Nasta, 2000 This invaluable text and reference book for all PGCE and Cert Ed course requirements and training in service Survival Guide for College Managers and Leaders David Collins, 2006-12-23 Serves as a guide to leading and managing a FE College for College Leaders and Senior Managers This title covers various aspects of running a College from shaping the organisation and communicating a vision to planning and marketing the programme right through to dealing with people and improving quality Challenging Professional Learning Sue Crowley, 2013-10-23 Teachers and trainers are dual professionals they are required to have up to date industry skills and also skills in teaching and learning The issue of professional identity and the promotion of maintaining and building pedagogic expertise in relation to their vocational work is therefore an extremely important one This book argues that quality teaching and learning is very much dependent upon teachers and trainers undergoing continuing professional development CPD engaging actively in professional learning activities generating professional learning communities and building their level of professionalism to meet increasing teaching standards Unfortunately CPD is battling a context of intensification of work pressure of time and economic restrictions The completion of CPD under such conditions can often become tokenistic and hitherto there has been very little research or evidence base for determining what approaches to CPD are most effective and efficient Challenging Professional Learning draws on a wealth of recent research and evidence on what ingredients are necessary for effective and efficient crucial at a time of such fiscal constraints professional learning It also explores the wider implications of these findings and the concept of learning as a collective activity It argues that real professionalism cannot be achieved in isolation but instead takes place in a context that has political social and cultural influences The book brings together research from the Institute for Learning and practice around professional learning to link both individual and collective professional learning to organisational learning leadership and the management of change whilst offering practical suggestions for improving these practices It will be of great interest to teacher educators and their students at undergraduate and post graduate levels as well as anyone who works in higher education and with professional development

Teacher Education in Lifelong Learning

Alison Iredale, 2018-01-13 This book promotes the idea that professionalism among teachers should be marked by democratic relations rather than by managerialism and performance management It provides a thorough investigation of issues around the participation of trainee teachers in the Lifelong Learning Sector by reflecting on their experiences and questioning how well initial teacher education prepares teachers as professional practitioners in the sector The reflexive nature of the book promotes a deep discussion of the nature of professionalism drawing upon the works of John Dewey Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu and places initial teacher education in the Lifelong Learning Sector firmly within the policy and ideological context of regulation audit and control It also illuminates pertinent discussions around teacher agency through a consideration of confidence excellence and routinised practices Finally the book takes us through the looking glass to reveal the tensions within the teacher education curriculum as it prepares trainee teachers for a ready made world whilst at the same time attempting to encourage principles of social justice inclusive practice and education as a democratic endeavour It will be compelling reading for students and researchers working in Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in lifelong learning and teacher training
