

Healthy Communication- Conflict Resolution

"It's not conflict, it's just two people who have different ideas about what's best."

Choose one of these scenarios (or create your own) to use as an example in the activities below:

Scenario 1: Robert wants a new action vehicle to help him with his swimming and water-skiing. His father says that he can't afford to buy him anything because he's still in high school.

Scenario 2: Maria and Cindy have been friends for a long time. But Maria feels that Cindy has been a friend who has not been there for her when she needs her. Cindy has been busy with school and work.

Scenario 3: Natalia can't believe her friend asked her to go to the dance with the guy. She must have been mistaken.

Any scenario:

What conflict or outcome does the person acting assert? (eg. anger, sadness, frustration, change)

What decision or communication does the person acting assert? (eg. ...)

What are the healthy ways that could approach the situation? (eg. ...)

Hagopian, 2025-01-14 In the face of relentless attacks on antiracist education a much needed reckoning with the roots of this latest wave of censorship and an urgent call to action to defend education In just the last few years scores of states have introduced or passed legislation that would require teachers to lie to students about structural racism and other forms of oppression Books have been cut from curricula and pulled from school library shelves Teachers have been fired and threatened with discipline As long time organizer writer and high school teacher Jesse Hagopian argues in Teach Truth at stake is our democracy not to mention the annihilation of entire systems of knowledge that challenge the status quo As Hagopian shows by exploring the origins philosophy and manifestations of these attacks the Right s effort to regulate knowledge is an attempt to maintain its power over the American capitalist system now and into the future Yet the struggle for a liberatory education has a long history in the United States from the days when it was illegal for Black people to be literate to the Civil Rights and Black Power movements to Black Lives Matter at School today Teachers students and their allies are already building a movement in the classroom on campus and in the streets to defend antiracist education      Real

Teens George Barna, 2001-10-03 They are the digital generation the Mosaics a new wave of connected and decidedly upbeat young people who are anxious to make a positive difference in the world around them Skepticism once the hallmark of Generation X is waning as the prevalent attitude among teens As teens change so must our way of teaching them and reaching them How can we effectively convey the eternal truths of the gospel to high tech information drenched highly mobile youth who believe themselves to be self sufficient What are the challenges we face in reaching out to the Mosaic generation And what are the opportunities they present Once again George Barna points the way

101 Ideas for Making Disciples in Your Youth Group C. Kent Julian, 2008-11-04 As youth workers we all have our vision the plan we hope to make real in our ministries to change the lives of teenagers as we introduce them to Jesus But how often have you found yourself wondering if your picture is just wrong or thinking you just don't know how to make your ministry match what you envision In 101 Ideas for Making Disciples in Your Youth Group you'll explore the idea of ACTS to create a disciple making ministry with the elements needed to create an environment necessary to cultivate this mission ACTS represents everything a missional youth ministry needs to be about Adoration More than an act this is a lifestyle that is fleshed out in expressions of prayerful dependence deep gratitude and expectancy in what God can do Community This is an atmosphere of genuine caring authentic relationships and unity based on Christ's love for his Church and the Church's love for one another Truth and Grace The basis of everything that is taught and valued this is a setting where God's Word is the standard and central to belief and behavior Serving and Sharing As a way of life serving involves helping the whole person by ministering to both believers and the lost by meeting their needs as well as verbally sharing God's message of grace As you dig into each aspect of ACTS you'll discover Jesus' style and see how he cultivated each element in his own ministry Then you'll explore the youth ministry style of each aspect where you'll find 25 hands-on easy to implement ideas on how to cultivate the same element in your context in order to create an environment of disciple making that finally fits your ministry

Teaching Kids to Love Learning. Not Just Endure It Michael Connolly, 2011-05-16 With so much emphasis these days on making students globally competitive and prepared to beat students of other nations on international assessments and with so much talk about academic rigor and emphasis on rigid accountability measures we are in danger of losing sight of the most fundamental element of successful teaching and learning love Teaching Kids to Love Learning Not Just Endure It makes the case that if we really want no child left behind we must return to the solid foundation on which successful teaching and learning has always rested the love of teacher for her students and they for her and the passion of the teacher for her discipline and her desire to share that passion with her students
