Freak Performances Analola Santana, 2018-10-15. The figure of the freak as perceived by the Western gaze has always been a part of the Latin American imaginary from the letters that Columbus wrote about his encounters with dog-faced people to Shakespeare's Caliban. The freak acquires greater significance in a globalized neoliberal world that defines the abnormal as one who does not conform mentally, physically, or emotionally and is unable or unwilling to follow the economic and cultural norms of the institutions in power. Freak Performances examines the continuing effects of colonialism on modern Latin American identities with a particular focus on the way it has constructed the body of the other through performance. Theater questions the representations of these bodies as it enables the empowerment of the silenced other. The freak as a spectacle of otherness finds in performance an opportunity for re-appropriation by artists resisting the dominant authority. Through an analysis of experimental theater, dance theater, performance art, and gallery-based installation art across eight countries, Analola Santana explores the theoretical issues shaped by the encounters and negotiations between different bodies in the current Latin American landscape.

Teatralidad y experiencia política en América Latina (1957-1977) Gustavo Geirola, 2018-01-09. Se investiga la relación entre la producción teatral y la actividad política durante los sesenta o sesietes conjeturando las razones del fracaso y desarticulación de la izquierda política en la región seguida por la instalación de regímenes dictatoriales atroces y la decepción subsiguiente. Se esgrime la tesis de una dimensión evangélica de la revolución en la que el cristianismo filtra el discurso marxista limitando su potencia transformadora y afectando simultáneamente las prácticas políticas y las culturales. Se propone la teatralidad como política de la mirada. Los textos del Che Guevara se cotejan con los de Ignacio de Loyola y se estudia una teatralidad de la guerrilla que atraviesa los manifiestos y discusiones de los teatristas desde la creación colectiva hasta el happening. Una política perversa del sacrificio y del martirologio sostiene y limita las rebeliones artísticas durante esa etapa del capitalismo. Se debate la cuestión de la praxis teatral desde Stanislavski hasta Grotowski.
