an automaton devoting her life completely to her medical work until she sees in Nadja a resemblance to her own daughter and the girl becomes more than just another patient to her. She vows to save the girl especially because she had no opportunity to save her own child. Gradually she begins to love Nadja fantasizing that nobody will come for the girl and she will be able to take her home, put her into her daughter's room and have someone to love again. The antagonist initially and love interest is David Hashemi, an FBI agent of Lebanese background who is assigned to the hospital because the FBI has discovered that the same plastique that blew up the World Trade Center was in the car that exploded. At first Elizabeth is hostile to him. She does not like the FBI, resents their campus harassment during the Vietnam War, is horrified by the WACO incinerations and fears that they will take Nadja away from the hospital. Gradually, against her will, Elizabeth falls in love with David as she finds that he is a good man, noble, caring and brave, who needs love as much as she does. The major figures at the hospital are 1 Clifford Grubman, the Hospital President who is romantically interested in Elizabeth, and 2 Molly Quinn, Elizabeth's assistant nurse who is Elizabeth's best friend and forces her to stay alive after the Athens massacre. The FBI remains at the hospital to keep Nadja under surveillance while waiting for her to regain consciousness so that they can ask her about the car's destination. Certain that a backup team will come to replace the people blown up in the car, Hashemi says that it is essential to find the target to be bombed. Nadja is also under surveillance by other terrorists who are hidden around the hospital and want to make sure that she does not divulge any information to the Americans. During the following weeks there are a number of dramatic confrontations. Hospital personnel and FBI agents are killed in their attempts to protect the girl. Hashemi decides that she must be moved and she and a nurse Molly are taken over night to Elizabeth's house. Dr Grubman is tortured and murdered when he can not divulge where Nadja is taken when she is moved from the hospital. However, before she can be moved again, she is kidnapped. Molly is injured and another FBI agent is killed. Interrogating a woman arrested in a raid, Hashemi discovers that Nadja is to be used as a human bomb like a kamikaze pilot or a suicide bomber and that the target is the U.S. President who will be arriving at Stewart Airport to pay a visit to Franklin Roosevelt's legendary house in Hyde Park. Hashemi tells Elizabeth that she must accept Nadja's inevitable death and forbids Elizabeth to come to the airport on the day of the confrontation. They quarrel violently about this and that morning, as soon as he is gone, Elizabeth drives herself to Stewart Airport. When she sees Nadja out on the tarmac, she runs toward her determined to save her. In the ensuing conflagration at Stewart Airport, the gang of terrorists is captured. Nadja and Elizabeth are saved but Hashemi loses a leg running to protect them. He is angry and bitter and irrationally blames Elizabeth and Nadja for his loss. He is a hero, will be decorated and will be given a desk job by the FBI, but he is as might be expected inconsolable. Although Hashem
