Solidarity Of Strangers Feminism After Identity Politics:

Solidarity of Strangers Jodi Dean, 1996-01-01 Anyone concerned by the swirling academic and political debates over identity politics multiculturalism and what could bring us together in divisive times should read Jodi Dean's welcome argument for reconstructing a conscious deliberative solidarity With insightful engagement with scholars as diverse as Judith Butler Cornel West Jurgen Habermas and Lynet Uttal Dean models the kind of dialogue she advocates Martha Minow author of Making All the Difference Inclusion Exclusion and American Law Solidarity of Strangers is an impressive achievement Dean works to move political theory beyond the poststructuralist Habermasian divide as she offers a discourse ethics that accounts for difference and a universalism that does not abandon specificities Shane Phelan author of Getting Specific Postmodern Lesbian Politics Dean offers a strong original and humane defense of universalist ideals against doubts which she deeply grasps and sympathetically arrays of the compatibility of such ideals with a respect for difference Frank Michelman Harvard Law School Dean has a real gift for weaving personal narrative current events law and high theory Her complicated and important argument attempts to move beyond the either/or of identity politics and its critics via a creative reevaluation of universalism premised on difference and plurality A very important book Judith Grant University of Southern California author of Fundamental Feminism Contesting the Core Concepts of Feminist Theory Calling for inspiration on Habermas George Herbert Mead and their critics Dean challenges conventional interpretive constraints on law and theory aiming to open up contestable spaces to democratic practices She offers the ideal of reflective solidarity as a vehicle for reclaiming a qualified notion of universality for feminism This controversial move will no doubt provoke debate requiring readers to think through the link between our epistemological convictions and our political commitments Kathy Ferguson author of The Man Question Visions of Subjectivity in Feminist Theory

Global Health Justice and Governance Dr. Prah Ruger, 2018-05-03 In a world beset by serious and unconscionable health disparities by dangerous contagions that can circle our globalized planet in hours and by a bewildering confusion of health actors and systems humankind needs a new vision a new architecture new coordination among renewed systems to ensure central health capabilities for all Global Health Justice and Governance lays out the critical problems facing the world today and offers a new theory of justice and governance as a way to resolve these seemingly intractable issues A fundamental responsibility of society is to ensure human flourishing The central role that health plays in flourishing places a unique claim on our public institutions and resources to ensure central health capabilities to reduce premature death and avoid preventable morbidities Faced with staggering inequalities imperiling epidemics and inadequate systems the world desperately needs a new global health architecture Global Health Justice and Governance lays out this vision

Cultural Politics of Emotion Sara Ahmed, 2014-06-11 Emotions work to define who we are as well as shape what we do and this is no more powerfully at play than in the world of politics Ahmed considers how emotions keep us invested in relationships of power and also shows how this use of emotion could be crucial to areas such as feminist and queer politics Debates on international terrorism asylum and migration as well as reconciliation and reparation are explored through topical case studies In this book the difficult issues are confronted head on The Cultural Politics of Emotion is in dialogue with recent literature on emotions within gender studies cultural studies sociology psychology and philosophy Throughout the book Ahmed develops a theory of how emotions work and the effects they have on our day to day lives New for this edition A substantial 15 000 word Afterword on Emotions and Their Objects which provides an original contribution to the burgeoning field of affect studies A revised Bibliography Updated throughout

The Racial Politics of Division Monika Gosin, 2019-06-15 The Racial Politics of Division deconstructs antagonistic discourses that circulated in local Miami media between African Americans white Cubans and black Cubans during the 1980 Mariel Boatlift and the 1994 Balsero Crisis Monika Gosin challenges exclusionary arguments pitting these groups against one another and depicts instead the nuanced ways in which identities have been constructed negotiated rejected and reclaimed in the context of Miami's historical multiethnic tensions Focusing on ideas of legitimacy Gosin argues that dominant race making ideologies of the white establishment regarding worthy citizenship and national belonging shape inter minority conflict as groups negotiate their precarious positioning within the nation Rejecting oversimplified and divisive racial politics The Racial Politics of Division portrays the lived experiences of African Americans white Cubans and Afro Cubans as disrupters in the binary frames of worth citizenship narratives Foregrounding the oft neglected voices of Afro Cubans Gosin posits new narratives regarding racial positioning and notions of solidarity in Miami By looking back to interethnic conflict that foreshadowed current demographic and social trends she provides us with lessons for current debates surrounding immigration interethnic relations and national belonging Gosin also shows us that despite these new demographic realities white racial power continues to reproduce itself by requiring complicity of racialized groups in exchange for a tenuous claim on US citizenship

Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014-11-01 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volume explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today's significant issues such as identity politics dislocation postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today Hannah Arendt Amy Allen, 2017-05-15 Hannah Arendt was one of the most original and influential social and political theorists of the 20th century This volume brings together the most important English language essays of the past 30 years on Arendt's unique and lasting contributions to social and political philosophy Contentious Politics in North America J. Ayres, L. Macdonald, 2009-04-08 This is the only book of its kind devoted to exploring contentious politics from a North American perspective including protests social movements transnational contention and emergent regional governance processes between Canadian U S and Mexican state and civil society actors Popular Tropes of Identity in Contemporary Russian Television and Film Irina Souch, 2017-11-16 This book is an exploration of the changes in Russian cultural identity in the twenty years after the fall of the Soviet state Through close readings of a select number of contemporary Russian films and television series Irina Souch investigates how a variety of popular cultural tropes ranging from the patriarchal family to the country idyll survived the demise of Communism and maintained their power to inform the Russian people's self image She shows how these tropes continue to define attitudes towards political authority economic disparity ethnic and cultural difference generational relations and gender The author also introduces theories of identity developed in Russia at the same time enabling these works to act as sites of productive dialogue with the more familiar discourses of Western scholarship Gender, Race, and Sudan's Exile Politics Nada Mustafa Ali, 2015-07-29 Gender Race and Sudan's Exile Politics examines the gendered and racialized discourses and practices of the Sudanese opposition in exile through the opposition movements of the 1990s and early 2000s and discusses the history through which these discourses evolved The military coup that brought the National Islamic Front NIF now National Congress Party NCP to power in 1989 not only forced most political parties trade unions and activists in Sudan into either exile politics or underground activism it also urged many of Sudan's political forces and activists to rethink the meaning of belonging and of the Old Sudan In the mid 1990s this involved a rethinking of the relationship between religion and politics acknowledging Sudan's diversity acknowledging the need to restructure Sudan's economy and politics to ensure equal access and participation for the historically marginalized and committing to self determination for the people of South Sudan The concept of the New Sudan broadly captured this rethinking This book interrogates the relationship between women's organizations and activism in exile on one hand and nationalist transformative and other political movements and processes on the other It further discusses transnational coalition building across difference including racial difference between women's organization seeking to transform gender relations in Sudan and South Sudan Feminist and LGBTI+ Activism across Russia, Scandinavia and Turkey Selin Çağatay, Mia Liinason, Olga Sasunkevich, 2021-12-16 What do struggles for women's and LGBTI rights in Russia Turkey and the Scandinavian countries have in common And what can actors who struggle for rights and justice in these contexts learn from each other Based on a multisited ethnography of feminist and LGBTI activism across Russia Turkey and the Scandinavian countries this Open Access book explores transnational struggles on various levels from the micro scale of the everyday to large scale spectacular events Drawing on ethnographic insights and encounters from various sites this book conceptualizes resistance as situated in the grey zone between barely perceptible even hidden or covert forms of mundane activist practices and highly visible street protests gathering large crowds Taking the reader beyond the dichotomies of visible invisible and public private this book advances new understandings of resistance solidarity and activism in transnationalizing feminist and queer struggles illustrated by rich ethnographic case studies from Russia Scandinavia and Turkey

The Stranger Next Door Arlene Stein, 2022-12-27 Winner of the Ruth Benedict Prize The story of a small town's fight over LGBTQ rights that reveals how the far right weaponizes social issues to declare whose lives are valuable and whose are expendable A new preface bridges the past and the present in Arlene Stein's award winning work of narrative sociology The Stranger Next Door contextualizing the so called culture wars as they have evolved since the post Reagan years With deep on the ground research and vivid storytelling Stein explores how the right mobilizes fear and uncertainty to shift blame onto strangers and how these symbolic struggles undermine democracy Faced with globalization and automation the working class citizens of the Pacific Northwest's Timbertown felt left behind fearing job loss and the hollowing out of their small town Religious conservatives convinced many local citizens that queer people were to blame A bitter battle to deny the civil liberties of sexual minorities ensued Though set in the 1990s The Stranger Next Door is a story that echoes loudly today Stein looks at how local conflicts over LGTBQ rights and other social issues paved the way for the contemporary right wing populist resurgence The Stranger Next Door positions today's battles over transgender rights and critical race theory in a long running struggle to define America offering a razor sharp examination of how the right manufactures local culture wars to divide and conquer

Political Identity and Democratic Citizenship in Turbulent Times Kristensen, Niels Noergaard, 2020-06-19 Turbulent times challenge democratic politics and governance in Western countries Party systems in many instances have failed to produce solutions to vital policy problems like immigration state borders welfare or environmental issues While subjective perceptions of macroeconomic outcomes are consistently related to political trust at the micro level few studies have explored how individuals develop political engagement and identity New insights are needed from studies focusing on how people become politically active and how political identities develop Political Identity and Democratic Citizenship in Turbulent Times is a critical scholarly research publication that investigates discusses deconstructs analyzes and tests the concept of political identity and its evolving role in modern democracy Moreover it explores the contours of politics and brings together studies that examine the democratic potential of a diversity of participatory spheres institutions and arenas Highlighting topics such as political culture consumerism and welfare states this book is ideal for politicians policymakers government officials sociologists historians academicians professionals researchers and students

Reconstructing Post-Nationalist Liberal Pluralism K. Smits, 2005-12-09 This book examines liberal theory's attempts to accommodate pluralism asking two fundamental questions 1 How and why have theorists based their defences and proposed revisions of liberal pluralism upon particular and contestable definitions of what is the relevant and significant plurality 2 Can a revised liberal pluralism account for the political significance of sub national identity group membership Social Poetics Mark Nowak,2020-03-10 Social Poetics documents the imaginative militancy and emergent solidarities of a new insurgent working class poetry community rising up across the globe Part autobiography part literary criticism part Marxist theory Social Poetics presents a people s history of the poetry workshop from the founding director of the Worker Writers School Nowak illustrates not just what poetry means but what it does to and for people outside traditional literary spaces from taxi drivers to street vendors and other workers of the world Sexual Politics in Indonesia S. Wieringa,2002-05-21 This book analyzes the interaction between nationalism feminism and socialism in Indonesia since the beginning of the twentieth century until the New Order State of President Suharto The focus is on the communist women s organization Gerwani which was by 1965 the largest communist women s organization in the non communist world Gerwani members combined feminist demands such as a reform of the marriage law with an insistence upon a political role for women The organization was destroyed in a campaign of sexual slander orchestrated by the military under General Suharto Hundreds of thousands of people were killed President Sukarno lost his power and General Suharto took over Reparative Futures and Transformative Learning Spaces Melanie Walker,Alejandra Boni,Diana Velasco,2024-01-19 This edited book draws on an international cohort of authors all working towards sustainable decolonizing human development for more just futures in a variety of learning spaces Integrating sustainable human development with reparative futures the chapters present diverse examples of how transformative learning spaces can be created through different participatory methodologies and with different stakeholders The book will be of interest to researchers graduate students practitioners and policymakers in the areas of higher education development studies and transformative innovation Excluded Within Sina Kramer,2017 Why are some claims seen or heard as political claims while others are not Why are some people not seen or heard as political agents And how does their political unintelligibility shape political bodies and the terms of political agency from which they are excluded In this groundbreaking book Sina Kramer uses the framework of constitutive exclusion to describe the phenomenon of internal exclusion exclusions that occur within a political body More specifically constitutive exclusions occur when a system of thought or a political body defines itself by excluding some difference based on gender race class sexuality etc that is considered intolerable to the boundaries that comprise the body or system s political worth This exclusion is not absolute but preserves the very difference it seeks to repress in order to define itself against what it is not Yet as Kramer argues if those who are excluded contest their repression their political claims are deemed threatening and criminal But can we ever be without constitutive exclusions And can we avoid reinscribing them through critique Kramer ultimately argues that to do justice to the excluded to render those claims intelligible as political claims instead requires the reconstitution of the political body on new terms Importantly this book offers both a diagnosis and a critique of the concept of constitutive exclusion articulating what counts as a political action and who counts as a political agent Kramer takes up a range of cases including those of Antigone Claudette Colvin and Rosa Parks the 1992 Los Angeles riots and the Black Lives Matter movement to better understand who counts as a political actor and how we understand political belonging and the contestation of exclusion Excluded Within articulates who we are by virtue of who we exclude and what claims we cannot see hear or understand Making Human Rights Intelligible Mikael Rask Madsen, Gert Verschraegen, 2013-03-20 Human rights have become a defining feature of contemporary society permeating public discourse on politics law and culture But why did human rights emerge as a key social force in our time and what is the relationship between rights and the structures of both national and international society By highlighting the institutional and socio cultural context of human rights this timely and thought provoking collection provides illuminating insights into the emergence and contemporary societal significance of human rights Drawn from both sides of the Atlantic and adhering to refreshingly different theoretical orientations the contributors to this volume show how sociology can develop our understanding of human rights and how the emergence of human rights relates to classical sociological questions such as social change modernisation or state formation Making Human Rights Intelligible provides an important sociological account of the development of international human rights It will be of interest to human rights scholars and sociologists of law and anyone wishing to deepen their understanding of one of the most significant issues of our time
