Solitaire A Narrative:

Solitaire Aimee Liu, 2016-05-03 Solitaire is the groundbreaking memoir of a young woman growing up in the 1970s and her triumph over anorexia nervosa Bedrock and Paradox David M. Pozza, 2006 Rarely does an author so thoroughly entertain and anger his readers as Edward Abbey does This book focuses on Abbey's aesthetic and philosophy of paradox as they are reflected in his writings and explores his literary technique of blurring traditional genres regarding fiction and nonfiction Until now no study has sufficiently treated the full complexity of Abbey's writing throughout his career making this particular work not only original but important Struggles for Representation Phyllis Rauch Klotman, Janet K. Cutler, 1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non-fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non-fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non-fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film's mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcolm X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor Proceedings of the World Anthropology Congress 2023 (WAC 2023) Tulishree Pradhan, Deepak Kumar Behera, Savarimuthu Gregory, Pooran Chand Joshi, Madhuri Meelee, Maria Stoicheva, 2023-12-29 This is an open access book The World Anthropology Congress 2023 intends to explore multiple avenues for global peace and harmony for sustainable development of humankind particularly of the indigenous Adivasi and tribal people of the world It is now well understood that Anthropology as a discipline can lend a powerful voice to non hegemonic and marginalized cultural perspectives on both Global Peace and Development for ensuring social justice to the tribal and autochthones people Since Global Peace and Development are multi layered processes and Anthropology promotes the tradition of multifaceted thinking that ranges from the local to the global and traverses the space in bet ween the discipline can unveil new dimensions in promoting lasting peace and sustained human development Further accumulated scientific evidence proves that many non violent societies co existed peacefully as a norm throughout the prehistoric period of the human existence This indicates that human co existence and peace were not mere words but concepts that are integral to the texts of Anthropology Therefore deliberations in this Congress will contribute to the processes of Peace and Development of human society at different levels The proposed World Anthropology Congress 2023 will continue this line of enquiry by playing a crucial role in creating a more contemporary and relevant debate on indigeneity social justice and global peace

Wild Abandon Alexander Menrisky, 2020-12-17 The American wilderness narrative which divides nature from culture has remained remarkably persistent despite the rise of ecological science which emphasizes interconnection between these spheres Wild Abandon considers how ecology s interaction with radical politics of authenticity in the twentieth century has kept that narrative alive in altered form As ecology gained political momentum in the 1960s and 1970s many environmentalists combined it with ideas borrowed from psychoanalysis and a variety of identity based social movements The result was an identity politics of ecology that framed ecology itself as an authentic identity position repressed by cultural forms including social differences and even selfhood Through readings of texts by Edward Abbey Simon Ortiz Toni Morrison Margaret Atwood and Jon Krakauer among others Alexander Menrisky argues that writers have both dramatized and critiqued this tendency in the process undermining the concept of authenticity altogether and granting insight into

Memoirs of Well-Being Tanja Reiffenrath, 2016-05-15 As the body politics of life writing in the United States change illness and disability memoirs receive considerable attention Although these narratives are framed by a lack of health they abundantly present health and do so beyond its binary relationship to the pathological This book departs from previous scholarship by bringing into focus the writers representations of cure recovery and healing as well as their reluctance to bring closure to their narratives and align their stories with traditional notions of health These memoirs thus partake in the construction of alternative narratives of illness and disability

Su Friedrich Sonia Misra, Rox Samer, 2022-03-08 Su Friedrich b 1954 has been described as an autobiographical filmmaker an experimental filmmaker a documentary filmmaker an independent filmmaker a feminist filmmaker and a lesbian filmmaker labels that she sprucely dodges insisting time and again she is quite simply a filmmaker Nevertheless the influences of the experimental film culture and of the feminist and lesbian political ethos out of which she emerged resonate across her films to the present day Su Friedrich Interviews is the first volume dedicated exclusively to Friedrich and her work The interviews collected here highlight the historical theoretical political and economic dimensions through which Friedrich s films gain their unique and defiantly ambiguous identity The collection seeks to give a comprehensive view of Friedrich s diverse body of work the conditions in which her films were made and how they have circulated and become understood within different contexts The volume contains fifteen interviews two previously unpublished along with three autobiographical writings by Friedrich Included are canonical early interviews but a special focus is given to interviews that address her less studied film production in the twenty first century Echoing across these various pieces is Friedrich s charmingly sardonic and defiant personality familiar from her films Her occasional resistance to an interviewer s line of questioning opens up other unexpected lines of inquiry as it also provides insight into her distinct philosophy The volume closes with a new interview conducted by the editors which illuminates areas that remain latent or underdiscussed in other interviews including Friedrich s work as a film professor and projects that supplement Friedrich s filmmaking such as Edited By an online historical resource dedicated to collecting information about and honoring the contributions of women film editors
