Close Listening Charles Bernstein, 1998-04-30 Close Listening brings together seventeen strikingly original essays especially written for this volume on the poetry reading the sound of poetry and the visual performance of poetry While the performance of poetry is as old as poetry itself critical attention to modern and postmodern poetry performance has been surprisingly slight This volume featuring work by critics and poets such as Marjorie Perloff Susan Stewart Johanna Drucker Dennis Tedlock and Susan Howe is the first comprehensive introduction to the ways in which twentieth century poetry has been practiced as a performance art From the performance styles of individual poets and types of poetry to the relation of sound to meaning from historical and social approaches to poetry readings to new imaginations of prosody the entries gathered here investigate a compelling range of topics for anyone interested in poetry Taken together these essays

encourage new forms of close listenings not only to the printed text of poems but also to tapes performances and other expressions of the sounded and visualized word The time is right for such a volume with readings spoken word events and the Web gaining an increasing audience for poetry Close Listening opens a number of new avenues for the critical discussion of the sound and performance of poetry

The Solo English Cantatas and Italian Odes of Thomas A. Arne Paul F. Rice, 2020-01-08 This study examines Thomas Arne's solo cantatas and Italian odes from musical literary and social perspectives Arne composed these works between 1740 and 1774 As such they provide a means of evaluating the evolving aspects of his musical style throughout his compositional career The Italian odes have been little studied but provide an important gloss on Charles Burney's comments on Arne's inability to set the Italian language Study of the cantata texts that Arne set reveals that they are often pastiches which make use of the words of William Congreve Alexander Pope Christopher Smart and others The resulting process of adaptation and recombination recontextualizes the borrowed material resulting in differing emphases and changed meanings Arne was restricted in his career opportunities because of his Catholic faith The cantata genre provided Arne with an important creative outlet in the hedonistic atmosphere of the concerts of London's pleasure gardens
