Sociopolitical Perspectives on Language Policy and Planning in the USA Thom Huebner, Kathryn A.

Davis, 1999-11-15 This volume is the result of a colloquium on socio political dimensions of language policy and language planning held at the 1997 American Association of Applied Linguistics AAAL Conference The focus is on language planning and policy in the USA but the issues raised will be applicable to other parts of the world as well Three broad issues are addressed general aspects case studies dealing with certain languages or ethnic groups and language planning in practice The first general part provides a historical analysis of language planning and language policy in the US and proceeds to deal with maintenance and loss of indigenous languages and the constraints imposed by current policies and how these constraints can be effectively dealt with The second part contains a number of case studies It discusses aspects of planning policies pertaining to pidgin languages gestural languages used by the deaf ASL and constraints in foreign language education this part also raises issues relating to ethnic groups concentrating on the position of Mexicans and Puerto Ricans in the US In the third part some practical issues are raised by looking into the role of language and culture in teaching reading foreign language policy in higher education Hawaiian language renaissance and gender neutralization in American English The book is a tribute to Charlene Junko Sato a sociolinguist and a language activist She died in 1996 and will be remembered for her work not only in linguistics but also for her dedication in advancing Hawaiian Pidgin influencing language policy through various publications and court room appearances      Language Policies in Education James W.

Tollefson, 2013 How do language policies in schools create inequalities among learners How do policies marginalize some students while granting privilege to others How do language policies in education serve the interests of dominant groups within societies How can linguistic minorities further their interests through attempts to change language policies in schools This new edition of Language Policies in Education takes a fresh look at these enduring questions at the heart of fundamental debates about the role of schools in society the links between education and employment and conflicts between linguistic minorities and mainstream populations Reflecting developments in language policy since the publication of the first edition in 2002 all chapters are original and substantial contributions to the study of language policy and exemplify major theories and research methods in the field Chapter authors are major scholars in language policy and critical language studies The case studies international in scope present cutting edge analyses of important language policy debates in countries around the world      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009      A Companion to Heritage Studies William Logan, Máiréad Nic Craith, Ullrich Kockel, 2015-08-10 A Companion to Heritage

Studies is a comprehensive state of the art survey of the interdisciplinary study of cultural heritage Outlines the key themes of research including cultural preservation environmental protection world heritage and tourism ethics and human rights Accessibly organized into a substantial framework setting essay by the editors followed by three sections on expanding using and abusing and recasting heritage Provides a cutting edge guide to emerging trends in the field that is that is global in scope cross cultural in focus and critical in approach Features contributions from an international array of scholars including some with extensive experience in heritage practice through UNESCO World Heritage Centre ICOMOS and national heritage systems

The Big Death , Sibling Interaction Across Cultures Patricia G. Zukow,2012-12-06 Sibling Interaction Across Cultures is a collection of studies focusing on the role siblings play in the social emotional and cognitive development of their younger siblings Unlike much previous research on sibling relationships these studies share the underlying assumption that social interaction plays a significant role in the acquisition and transmission of cultural knowledge and social understanding The contributors evaluate the advantages as well as limitations of current methodological issues directly affecting sibling research and assess the various theoretical perspectives underpinning these methodologies Drawing from empirical cross and infra cultural research this volume lays new groundwork for identifying universal environmental and culture specific aspects of the role of siblings in child development

So What? Now What? The Anthropology of Consciousness Responds to a World in Crisis Matthew C. Bronson,Tina R. Fields,2009-05-05 The greatest crisis of our times in a failure of the human imagination Editors The world is currently undergoing a period of unprecedented crises on virtually every front economic ecological and humanitarian It is starkly apparent that a shift is needed in our dominant structural systems and that by addressing the collective thinking that has created and maintained these systems scholars can do their part to catalyze such a shift The interdisciplinary field known as the Anthropology of Consciousness offers important insights for enacting this necessary shift This book draws on the work of a group of diverse scholars to explore what the intersection of anthropology and consciousness studies can contribute to the public turn within anthropology and the academy in general Its twelve chapters span disparate geographies and disciplinary frameworks yet cohere in their focus on common themes such as imagination empathy agency dialogue and ethics The answers to the question So What Now What differ for a linguistic anthropologist in the South Pacific an environmental educator in Hawai i a grant writing anthropologist serving a refugee agency in Portland Oregon and the founder of a girls school in Brazil Nevertheless they are united in the desire to reframe the anthropology of consciousness as an anthropology of conscience and this pioneering volume is the result

Body

Ornaments of Malaita, Solomon Islands Ben Burt, David Akin, 2009 This book reviews the significance of body ornaments in Kwara ae society and the history of their disappearance under the social transformation of colonial rule and Christian conversion It describes the materials techniques and relationships by which ornaments were produced and exchanged and contains detailed drawings of the enormous variety of ornaments worn throughout Malaita Child Development Martin J. Packer, 2017-03-25 Every child is born into a community a society with a culture in which he or she will live grow and develop Cultures lead to differences in children s development but equally important culture is an essential component of every child s psychological development Child Development takes a chronological approach from prenatal development to adolescence in which social cognitive emotional and physical aspects of development are interwoven Martin Packer integrates cross cultural examples from different parts of the world to illustrate how culture plays a constitutive role in children s development This book includes an in depth discussion of human evolution the history of language and the human lifespan as well as the theoretical perspectives of scientific research on children s development This textbook is essential reading for undergraduate students taking an introductory course in child development or developmental psychology Language Socialization Across Cultures Bambi B. Schieffelin, Elinor Ochs, 1986 A new alternative integrated approach to the developmental study of language and culture Comparative Austronesian Dictionary Darrell T. Tryon, 2011-06-01 No detailed description available for Comparative Austronesian Dictionary Infant Care and Feeding in the South Pacific Leslie B. Marshall, 2022-02-16 First Published in 1985 This is Volume 3 of a series on Food and Nutrition in History and Anthropology In the aftermath of the controversial marketing of infant formula in the Third World this volume describes infant care and feeding practices within their social cultural and physical context among fourteen different Melanesian and Polynesian societies The contributors address such issues as health and nutritional status women s roles and social support early socialization symbolism and meaning of foods and feeding and intracultural variability The material is valuable to health professionals nutritionists and social scientists in understanding infant care and feeding practices in underdeveloped regions Orchids of the Solomon Islands and Bougainville B. A. Lewis, Phillip Cribb, 1991 Guide to a rich and varied orchid flora under increasing pressure from the accelerating and widespread destruction of the forests of the Pacific islands Illustrated with 80 full page line drawing and 16 pages of colour photographs Falafala Ana Ano 'i Kwara'ae Ben Burt, 1992 Pacific Answers to Western Hegemony Jürg Wassmann, 2020-09-02 The destruction of local identity through the relentless encroachment of a McDonald ized cultural imperialism is a global phenomenon Yet the reactions of Pacific peoples to this Western hegemony are diverse and encourage the creation of independent cultural identities through sports and games political mediations tourism media and filmmaking and the struggles for land rights and titles particularly in Australia This book based on extensive fieldwork addresses a subject of great immediacy to peoples of the Pacific Island nations It fills an important gap in existing ethnographic literature on the region and confidently navigates what had previously been considered uncharted even unchartable waters that wide sea between the classic ethnography of Oceania and contemporary anthropology's theoretical concerns with global relations and transnational cultures. Its breadth, rigour and timely contribution to post colonial politics in Oceania are certain to ensure that this book will provide an enduring contribution to the field.
