Educator's Guide Kwame Alexander, Mary Rand Hess, 2020-05-26 Solo by Kwame Alexander and Mary Rand Hess is a New York Times bestseller. Kirkus Reviews said Solo is a contemporary hero's journey brilliantly told. Through the story of a young Black man searching for answers about his life, Solo empowers, engages, and encourages teenagers to move from heartache to healing, burden to blessings, depression to deliverance, and trials to triumphs. Blade never asked for a life of the rich and famous. In fact, he'd give anything not to be the son of Rutherford Morrison, a washed-up rock star and drug addict with delusions of a comeback. Or to no longer be part of a family known most for lost potential, failure, and tragedy, including the loss of his mother. The one true light is his girlfriend Chapel, but her parents have forbidden their relationship, assuming Blade will become just like his father. In reality, the only thing Blade and Rutherford have in common is the music that lives inside them. And songwriting is all Blade has left after Rutherford, while drunk, crashes his high school graduation speech and effectively rips Chapel away forever. But when a long-held family secret comes to light, the music disappears. In its place is a letter, one that could bring Blade the freedom and love he's been searching for, or leave him feeling even more adrift. Solo is written by New York Times bestselling author and Newbery Medal and Coretta Scott King Book Award winner Kwame Alexander. Showcases Kwame's signature intricacy, intimacy, and poetic style by exploring what it means to finally go home. An OwnVoices novel that features a BIPOC protagonist on a search for his roots and identity. Received great reviews from Publishers Weekly, School Library Journal, Booklist, and Kirkus. May to May - My Journey to Self-love with God Reabetswe Moabi, 2024-08-16 One of society's main problems today is a lack of self-love; this is evident in the way most people live their lives. Sadly, I was also part of the statistic. The fact that I was not living life to the full bothered me in many ways. I was not running my own race; I constantly compared myself to others. I had not accepted myself for who I was, and I had not taken full responsibility for my life. I was merely alive and confused. Although everything on the outside looked good, I felt miserable. I learned the hard way that what goes on inside us is more important than what people can see A lack of self love impacted most areas of my life negatively I knew something needed to change Once I had surrendered my life to God He helped me see my own value I started May to May My Journey to Self love with God to move my life in the right direction After discovering the 20 components that lead to self love my life has never been the same I could finally accept myself just as I was I am proud to say there is no other race I would rather run than my own I needed to love myself first so I could truly live      A Journey Down Melody Lane Raju Bharatan,2010-09-01
