A Solo Dance with a Second Chance Cynthia L Bohannon, 2015-12-21 The backdoor of ORyans Pub opened and Jack slipped out into the blackened evening Unrelenting fingers of the frozen night air wrapped themselves around his body while painful visions of Meg haunted him like razors slicing through his veins Too many times he had been down this road Meg Greystone longed to leave the city of Beaverton where all hope diminished When she accepted a position with Mahto Ranger Station in northern Idaho little did she realize the enormous challenges her new choice would bring With a cold heart of stone would she allow this journey to help her discover Gods grace healing and purpose SAY YES! Flying Solo After Sixty Pamela Hull, 2021-03-25 What happens when long partnered and no longer youthful we are suddenly left alone and uncoupled Here is a book that embraces the will the spirit of such a challenge Here are stories of how an older man or woman may avoid a barren middle age Of how to imbue our later years with heft meaning and delight self renewal thick with surprise and discovery Here are concerns that grievously affect our burgeoning aging community as most of us over 70 now live alone matters that resonate as well for retired couples Say Yes is neither guide nor manual Rather it is the narrator s intimate recountings of loss and aloneness But also possibilities for a thrilling reconfigured reality an abundance of bountiful awakenings for wishful readers who may become heartened and emboldened Do we latch on Or do we accept a conventional stasis a sedate conformity A digging in from fear of the untried The author is 60 when her husband of 36 years dies of pancreatic cancer Bereft an opportunity arises She takes an impulsive trip to Florence Italy From this her life catapults beyond the mundane as she travels by herself to other European cities writes a book moves to New York Enriched by strangers she finds celebration in being alone enters into passions old and new with verve and grit Standing firm is her staunch refusal to accept a life of marking time devoid of vigorous well being Why move beyond what comfortably suits To vanquish doubt dread despair To savor the largesse of our world in adventurous new ways How does one begin Say Yes
