Songbirds, Truffles, and Wolves Gary Paul Nabhan, 1993 THE AMERICAN NATURALIST TELLS OF HIS TRAVELS IN ITALY AS HE WALKED THE FRANCISCAN WAY TO READ THE TUSCAN AND UMBRIAN LANDSCAPE Waymarking

Italy's Influence on the American Environmental Imagination While on Pilgrimage to Assisi Robert Lawrence France, 2020-09-10 Undertaking a peripatetic pilgrimage that is equal parts a daily description of a 200 kilometre walk from the wounded mountain of La Verna to the tortured river in Assisi and an examination of the debt owed to Italy in terms of ecocultural and environmental scholarship this book provides an innovative addition to the nascent field of ecocritical narrative scholarship Through a process that has been referred to as deep travel or mind walking the text fulsomely reviews how time spent in Italy influenced the writings of notable North American environmental historians geographers scientists nature writers landscape architects and restoration theorists about the conception and manipulation of the natural world This literary field study highlights how the phenomenological co traversing of texts and trails can be a valued methodology for undertaking environmental criticism

Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature S.K. Robisch, 2009-05-28 The wolf is one of the most widely distributed canid species historically ranging throughout most of the Northern Hemisphere For millennia it has also been one of the most pervasive images in human mythology art and psychology Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature examines the wolf s importance as a figure in literature from the perspectives of both the animal s physical reality and the ways in which writers imagine and portray it Author S K Robisch examines more than two hundred texts written in North America about wolves or including them as central figures From this foundation he demonstrates the wolf s role as an archetype in the collective unconscious its importance in our national culture and its ecological value Robisch takes a multidisciplinary approach to his study employing a broad range of sources myths and legends from around the world symbology classic and popular literature films the work of scientists in a number of disciplines human psychology and field work conducted by himself and others By combining the fundamentals of scientific study with close readings of wide ranging literary texts Robisch astutely analyzes the correlation between actual living wolves and their representation on the page and in the human mind He also considers the relationship between literary art and the natural world and argues for a new approach to literary study an ecocriticism that moves beyond anthropocentrism to examine the complicated relationship between humans and nature

Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa John Elder, 2008-05 John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism

From the Farm to the Table Gary Holthaus, 2014-04-23 A portrait of the realities of agricultural life in today s world based on interviews with more than forty farm families In this book dozens of farm families from America s heartland detail the practices and values that relate to their land work and communities Their stories reveal that those who make their living in agriculture despite stereotypes of provincialism perpetuated by the media are savvy to the influence of world politics on local issues Gary Holthaus demonstrates how outside economic governmental legal and business developments play an increasingly influential if not controlling role in every farmer's life The swift approval of genetically modified crops by the federal government the formation of huge agricultural conglomerates and the devastating environmental effects of chemical fertilizers pesticides and herbicides are just a few issues buffeting family farms From the Farm to the Table explores farmers' experiences to offer a deeper understanding of how we can create sustainable and vibrant land based communities by adhering to fundamental agrarian values Tells the story of modern agriculture through engaging interviews with men and women who make a living farming in southeastern Minnesota In a tone reminiscent of Wendell Berry's A Place on Earth he examines the far reaching effects of genetically modified organisms free trade agreements that nurture transnational corporate profit dependence on fossil fuel derived chemicals and the toll all this has taken on the land and farmers Library Journal

Cutcliffe, 2010-09-20 The view of nature and technology inhabiting totally different even opposite spheres persists across time and cultures Most people would consider an English countryside or a Louisiana bayou to be natural though each is to an extent the product of technology Pollution widely thought to be a purely man made phenomenon results partly from natural processes All around us things from the natural world are brought into the human world At what point do we consider them part of culture rather than nature And does such a distinction illuminate our world or obscure its workings This compelling new book challenges the view that a clear and unwavering boundary exists between nature and technology Rejecting this dichotomy the contributors show how the history of each can be united in a constantly shifting panorama where definitions of nature and technology alter and overlap In addition to recognizing the artificial divide between these two concepts the essays in this book demonstrate how such thinking may affect societies ability to survive and prosper The answers and ideas are as numerous as the landscapes they consider for there is no single path toward a more harmonious vision of technology and nature Technologies that work in one place may not in another Nature that is preserved in one community might become the raw material of technological progress somewhere else Add to this the fact that the natural world and technology are not passive players but are profoundly involved in cultural construction Understanding such dynamics not only reveals a new historical complexity it prepares us for coping with many of the most difficult and pressing social issues facing us today Contributors Peter Coates Craig E Colten Stephen H Cutcliffe Hugh S Gorman Betsy Mendelsohn Joy Parr Peter C Perdue Sara B Pritchard Martin Reuss William D Rowley Edmund Russell Joel A Tarr Ann Vileisis James C Williams Thomas Zeller

Florence, Chianti, Siena & Surroundings Emma Jones, 2009-08-13 Visitors have been drawn to Florence s architectural and artistic treasures for centuries and for good reason But with an historical center of only half a square mile it can be hard to see the sights through the crowds The throng on the Duomo steps the lines for the Uffizi and the jostling for photos on Piazzale Michelangelo all require a good dose of patience especially under the blistering summer heat Fortunately early evening offers a respite the quieter streets and softer lighting at that time bring out the colors of the marble clad cathedral topped by Filippo Brunelleschi's archetypal dome the sheer immensity of the Palazzo Vecchio and the charm of the medieval Ponte Vecchio with its shops latched shut for the night But avoiding the lines when you enter the buildings and museums takes some preparation especially if you arrive in the busiest and hottest summer months when the only option is to drag yourself out of bed at sunrise to beat the crowds to the 8-15 am openings Not to be missed Piazza del Duomo Famous address of the Duomo Campanile and Battistero Galleria degli Uffizi The most select picture gallery in the world and potent symbol of Medici power Palazzo Vecchio Medieval town hall architecture at its most forceful Galleria dell'Accademia Home to Michelangelo's David Via dei Tornabuoni Even if you can't afford to buy you'll enjoy the window shopping on this luxury laden street Piazza Repubblica The 19th century makes its mark Museo Nazionale del Bargello Florence's national sculpture museum Giardino di Boboli Sculpture packed gardens behind the museum packed Palazzo Pitti The Oltrarno A warren of narrow streets filled with artisan workshops and some great restaurants Piazzale Michelangelo The classic Florentine view The churches Santa Maria Novella San Lorenzo Orsanmichele Santa Croce Santo Spirito and San Miniato al Monte are just some of the delights on offer The markets Shopping the Florentine way Ponte Vecchio Medieval bridge architecture at its most splendid Le Murate Atmospheric ex convent and ex prison now the venue for Firenze Estate events This guide focuses on Florence and the surrounding region including San Gimignano Chianti Mugello Upper Valdarno Val d'Elsa Fiesole Pistoia and Prato all easily reached in day trips This history rich region offers some of Italy's classic landscapes pole straight cypress trees lining dusty farm roads rolling hills that stretch as far as the eye can see fields of vibrant sunflowers medieval villages perched on rocky spurs above crashing surf Visit them all with this comprehensive guide that helps you explore the very best places A largely untouched coastline and protected wild areas only add to the appeal of this top vacation destination Regional chapters take you on an introductory tour with stops at museums historic sites and local attractions Places to stay and eat transportation to from and around your destination practical concerns tourism contacts it's all here! Scheese, 2013-10-28 In this comprehensive study of the genre Don Scheese traces its evolution from the pastoralism evident in the natural history observations of Aristotle and the poetry of Virgil to current American writers He documents the emergence of the modern form of nature writing as a reaction to industrialization Scheese's personal observations of natural settings sharpen the reader's understanding of the dynamics between author and locale His study is further informed by ample use of illustrations and close readings core writers such as Thoreau John Muir and Mary Austin showing how each writer's work exemplifies the pastoral tradition and celebrate a spirit of place in the United States Mediterranean Travels

Noreen Humble,2017-12-02 Written by leading scholars in the field this collection analyses the notion of travel writing as a genre while tracing significant examples of Mediterranean travel writing that return us to Ancient Greece to Medieval pilgrimages to Venetians diplomatic missions to an Egyptian s account of Paris in the nineteenth century to French artistic journeys in North Africa and to contemporary narratives of privileged resettlement death and dislocation A Cultural History of Plants in the Early Modern Era Andrew Dalby,Annette Giesecke,2023-12-14 A Cultural History of Plants in the Early Modern Era covers the period from 1400 to 1650 a time of discovery and rediscovery of experiment and innovation Renaissance learning brought ancient knowledge to modern European consciousness whilst exploration placed all the continents in contact with one another The dissemination of knowledge was further speeded by the spread of printing New staples and spices new botanical medicines and new garden plants all catalysed agriculture trade and science The great medical botanists of the period attempted no less than what Marlowe s Dr Faustus demanded a book wherein I might see all plants herbs and trees that grow upon the earth Human impact on plants and our botanical knowledge had irrevocably changed The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Plants presents the first comprehensive history of the uses and meanings of plants from prehistory to today The themes covered in each volume are plants as staple foods plants as luxury foods trade and exploration plant technology and science plants and medicine plants in culture plants as natural ornaments the representation of plants Andrew Dalby is an independent scholar and writer based in France Annette Giesecke is Professor of Classics at the University of Delaware USA Volume 3 in the Cultural History of Plants set General Editors Annette Giesecke University of Delaware USA and David Mabberley University of Oxford UK Around the Tuscan Table Carole Counihan,2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company At the Desert's Green Edge Amadeo M. Rea,1997-11 The Akimel O odham or Pima Indians of the northern Sonoran Desert continue to make their home along Arizona s Gila River despite the alarming degradation of their habitat that has occurred over the past century The oldest living Pimas can recall a lush riparian ecosystem and still recite more than two hundred names for plants in their environment but they are the last generation who grew up subsisting on cultivated native crops or wild foraged plants Ethnobiologist Amadeo M Rea has written the first complete ethnobotany of the Gila River Pima and has done so from the perspective of the Pimas themselves At the Desert s Green Edge weaves the Pima view of the plants found in their environment with memories of their own history and culture creating a monumental testament to their traditions and way of life Rea first discusses the Piman people environment and language then proceeds to share their botanical knowledge in entries for 240 plants that systematically cover information on economic botany folk taxonomy and linguistics The entries are organized according to Pima life form categories such as plants growing in water eaten greens and planted fruit trees All are anecdotal conveying the author s long personal involvement with the Pimas whether teaching in their schools or learning from them in conversations and interviews At the Desert s Green Edge is an archive of otherwise unavailable plant lore that will become a benchmark for botanists and anthropologists Enhanced by more than one hundred brush paintings of plants it is written to be equally useful to nonspecialists so that the Pimas themselves can turn to it as a resource regarding their former lifeways More than an encyclopedia of facts it is the Pimas own story a witness to a changing way of life in the Sonoran Desert Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross,2010-01-01 In Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross focuses on constructions of Tuscany in twentieth century Italian literature and juxtaposes them with English prose works by such authors as E M Forster and Frances Mayes to expose the complexity of literary representation centred on a single milieu Francis: The Journey and the Dream Murray Bodo,2022-08-16 In 1972 a young Franciscan friar named Murray Bodo wrote a unique book about the life of St Francis of Assisi Francis The Journey and the Dream offered readers a unique combination of lyrical prose and brief absorbing vignettes that inspired hundreds of thousands of people all over the world to contemplate the life of the famous saint and see him in a new way Fifty years and over 200 000 copies later this book still captivates people everywhere and Fr Bodo is still writing about St Francis and the Franciscan way of life His poetic style continues to draw readers in and he himself continues to gaze in wonder at the saint who worked nearly his entire life to rebuild the church This special anniversary edition includes a new preface in which Fr Bodo reflects on a half century spent immersed in the Franciscan way the living environment Whereas most other studies tend to concentrate solely on human perceptions of animals and fail to include the animal's role in the relationship Lawrence's approach shows how the participation of both animal and human determines the symbolic status of the animal which in turn influences the treatment of that animal within a particular society At a time when human destructiveness toward nature has reached tragic proportions Lawrence contends it is critical that we understand the processes by which certain cultural beliefs in combination with observations about the natural history of a particular animal result in emotional and mental responses that may ultimately determine the fate of that species The author argues persuasively that the wren hunt with its ancient roots associated beliefs and complex meanings in the preindustrialized world still has much to teach us
