Seagulls and Sad Sad Stories Sarah Bond,2024-12-23 And in the Muppets right there s this bit where the one with nee eyes and the one that looks like a pink dildo with fur on top go to Scrooge and they re like here man it s Christmas give us some money for poor people and Scrooge is like nar because I pay tax for prisons and workhouses ya mug So aye It s not great being poor It s tough being sixteen You always smell like Lynx you re supposedly in your prime cherry flavour is the best thanks for asking and your future is knocking at the door but who decides that future Your teachers Society Or a strangely perceptive Zoltar machine hidden at the back of a South Shields arcade Sarah Bond s Seagulls and Sad Sad Stories is the inaugural winner for the 2024 Richard Jenkinson Commission Three young lads hoping for the answers to their maths exam and which girls in their year they stand a chance with find out more than they bargained for when they put the question of their future to a mystical fortune teller Faced with harsh realities cruel stereotypes and an unnaturally persistent seagull they must decide whether the perceptions of others will determine their entire life or whether they believe they re worth so much more This edition was published to coincide with the world premiere at Laurels Theatre in Whitley Bay in December 2024 A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas,2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children s picture books for all aspects of children s services and this new edition does not disappoint Covering more than 18 000 books published through 2017 it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically this reference applies more than 1 200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children s picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel,United States Board on Books for Young People,2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children s literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson s Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children s literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity

Sleep in the Woods Dorothy Eden, 2014-10-21 This classic romantic novel about a woman and a land that can never be tamed is Dorothy Eden at her spellbinding best Poor orphaned Briar Johnson serves as maid to two gently reared young women on their voyage from London to New Zealand a land their aunt in Wellington has assured them is teeming with potential husbands Desperate for a home of her own Briar disguises herself in one of her mistress's gowns and slips into the governor's masked ball hoping to snare a certain tenderhearted gentleman Instead her plan goes terribly awry and she attracts the attention of commanding Saul Whitmore And he wants her to be his wife For five years Saul has called New Zealand his home And something in the primitive frontier calls to Briar Together they travel to Taranaki a remote town in the heart of hostile Maori territory Here among strangers warriors and savages Briar learns the true meaning of courage And against all odds she begins to lose her heart to this wild beautiful country and the husband she never expected to love

Show Don't Tell Curtis Sittenfeld, 2025-02-25 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The bestselling author of Eligible and Romantic Comedy blends acerbic wit shrewd insight and sharp-eyed observation in this bravura collection The Washington Post including a story that revisits the main character from her iconic novel Prep Each of these witty intelligent stories is a slice of modern life People A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice In her second story collection Sittenfeld shows why she's as beloved for her short fiction as she is for her novels In these dazzling stories she conjures up characters so real that they seem like old friends laying bare the moments when their long held beliefs are overturned In The Patron Saints of Middle Age a woman visits two friends she hasn't seen since her divorce In A for Alone a married artist embarks on a creative project intended to disprove the so-called Mike Pence Rule which suggests that women and men can't spend time alone together without lusting after each other And in Lost but Not Forgotten Sittenfeld gives readers of her novel Prep a window into the world of her beloved character Lee Fiora decades later when Lee attends an alumni reunion at her boarding school Hilarious thought provoking and full of tenderness for her characters Sittenfeld's stories peel back layer after layer of our inner lives keeping us riveted to the page with her utterly distinctive voice

Wait Gabriella Burnham, 2025-05-06 A young woman reunites with her teenage sister in their childhood home on Nantucket Island after their mother is deported in this alluring coming of age novel that movingly tackles serious issues in one of America's premier vacation spots NPR Gabriella Burnham knows the Nantucket of undocumented immigrants and broken families This tender novel allows us to rejoice when tiny windows of opportunities begin to open

her college graduation when her younger sister Sophie calls to tell her that their mom is nowhere to be found Elise leaves on the next flight back to her childhood home Nantucket Island for the first time in nearly four years The sisters soon learn that their mother was stopped by police on her way home from work and deported to S o Paulo Brazil Intent on bringing her mother back Elise stays and secures the same job she had in high school monitoring endangered birds Meanwhile her best friend from college Sheba a gregarious socialite and heir to a famed children s toy company reveals that she has inherited her grandfather s summer mansion on Nantucket Elise s worlds collide as she confronts the emotional and material conditions that have fractured her family as well as the life in Brazil that her mother has had to leave behind Told with penetrating insight humor and unexpected tenderness Wait is a story about a family swimming against the social currents that erode bonds housing precarity immigration systems and inherited wealth But it is also a story about love wit and sisterhood and how two sisters cling to each other in the midst of cataclysmic change all the while dreaming about a better future
