General Information Series, 1899 Medieval Damascus Hirschler Konrad Hirschler, 2016-02-19 The written text was a pervasive feature of cultural practices in the medieval Middle East At the heart of book circulation stood libraries that experienced a rapid expansion from the twelfth century onwards While the existence of these libraries is well known our knowledge of their content and structure has been very limited as hardly any medieval Arabic catalogues have been preserved This book discusses the largest and earliest medieval library of the Middle East for which we have documentation the Ashrafiya library in the very centre of Damascus and edits its catalogue This catalogue shows that even book collections attached to Sunni religious institutions could hold rather unexpected titles such as stories from the 1001 Nights manuals for traders medical handbooks Shiite prayers love poetry and texts extolling wine consumption At the same time this library catalogue decisively expands our knowledge of how the books were spatially organised on the bookshelves of such a large medieval library With over 2 000 entries this catalogue is essential reading for anybody interested in the cultural and intellectual history of Arabic societies Setting the Ashrafiya catalogue into a comparative perspective with contemporaneous libraries on the British Isles this book opens new perspectives for the study of medieval libraries Collection Management Basics Margaret Zarnosky Saponaro, G. Edward Evans, 2019-05-24 If the heart of the library is its collection this textbook provides the keys to the heart of your library Alongside standards of basic principles and processes you ll find practical guidance on everything from acquisitions to preservation Managing collections in today s libraries is more complicated and challenging than ever Electronic formats new options for collaboration and sharing and the drive to use data for evaluation purposes are just a few of the changes now driving collection management This updated edition of a classic text addresses changes in the field and provides a thorough overview of what collection development specialists now need to know to effectively and efficiently manage processes that range from selection and assessment to sharing resources handling challenges weeding and preservation Readers will find increased coverage of technical services intellectual freedom and censorship and collection policy development as well as budget development and tracking joint purchasing and negotiating with vendors Updates on e resources user needs assessment including data visualization and disaster management along with suggestions for further reading are also included Engagingly written and easy to understand this is a valuable text for students preparing for careers in public academic school and special libraries It will additionally serve as a training resource and professional refresher for practitioners
