Finding Your Perfect Match Pepper Schwartz,2006-01-03

The world has changed It s not as easy to meet people and it s definitely not as easy to find your soul mate At the very core two people need to have similar styles interests and values when it comes to loving and living So how do you find lasting love Dr Pepper Schwartz believes that if you re ready for a serious relationship it s time for a serious approach Described by Dr Judith Sills as insightful brilliantly original and extremely useful Dr Schwartz s Duet™ Total Compatibility System is designed to help you find someone you ll be compatible with on the deepest levels Finding Your Perfect Match will help you Identify the eight romantic personality characteristics that determine who you are what you want and ultimately who you should be with Explore the five major lifestyle issues that can have a dramatic impact on you and your partner money sex children core values and social life A lasting loving relationship can only develop with someone who matches those needs and is truly compatible with you but it s not as hard as you think You just have to be willing to take a different approach Dr Schwartz has done thirty years of relationship research to save you a lifetime of searching

So You Want to Get Married? Nick Sanchez,2013-03-07 If a wonderful and lasting marriage is what you want this guides for you So You Want to Get Married is a must read for anyone currently in a serious relationship or thinking about entering into one Initially written for his children the author writes in a fatherly and personal way about how to avoid major issues that often lead to painful divorces He also examines serious topics that better help you understand your potential spouse and identify your level of commitment to him her Through an insightful and simple process using the fingers of the hand the author helps you think through and evaluate five critical areas everyone must consider before making a lifetime commitment to an individual His innovative approach makes it easy for anyone to learn and remember the issues you truly need to address With your acquired knowledge you will be better prepared to make a decision as to whether he she is the right one for you and whether you will have a wonderful and lasting marriage This easy to remember set of principles brings clarity to the foggy world of love and marriage The advice in this book is the most useful I have ever heard I tell all my single friends about it I definitely used it when I was dating and now that Im happily married I see things in my husband and I can say I knew this was the man I was marrying For me it is a great comfort Tirsa S Stewart So You Want to Get Married is a concise and memorable checklist of five of the most important aspects to consider in a mate before making the big decision of marriage It helped me sift through many different candidates as I searched for the man of my dreams Now that I am living my fairy tale with him I continue to share the five finger analysis with all my single friends in hopes that they will also be able to find a wonderful loving companion to spend life and eternity with Arisa S Field The Five Fingers theory is what taught me what is essential to a good marriage It does not teach that everyone needs to be perfect to the contrary it teaches that all people have flaws and that is normal The question is whether you are willing to accept and live happily with the flaws of the one you are considering spending the rest of your life with These are five things that no man woman should look past when considering marriage Azalea S Klein It was hard growing up without ever having a boyfriend until I was 23 But the five finger rule is what kept me from settling I now see that I avoided a lot of heart ache and bad choices by never getting serious with someone who didnt meet my basic five finger criteria I am also grateful that while my husband is not perfect I did get all five fingers even the pinkie Stacey S Carruth

Finding the Love of Your Life Neil Clark Warren, 1992 In 25 years of counseling couples Dr Neil Clark Warren discovered that marriages most often fail because people simply choose the wrong person to marry In this Gold Medallion award winner an 11 month Christian Booksellers Association bestseller Dr Clark shares ten proven principles for finding the perfect mate

Someone Right for You Edward A. Dreyfus, Edward A Dreyfus, Dr, PhD, Dr Edward a Dreyfus Ph D, 2010-12-16 I am constantly hearing the lament Where have all the good men women gone The way people talk you would think that mates were an extinct species In this book I will be discussing the issue of mate selection in human beings and ways in which you can increase the odds of finding a compatible mate You do not have to be alone and there is more than one partner for you if you are willing to change your attitudes and put in a little effort You must give up certain myths time honored beliefs and begin to take charge of your romantic life Romance is no different from any other aspect of your life It requires that you take the responsibility for making it happen Your perfect partner is not going to materialize out of thin air and appear in your living room You must develop a plan of action and then act upon it Many folks are very sincere about their desires to be involved with another person but are not committed to making it happen Sincerity is an attitude while commitment is an action Sincerity without action does not make anything happen Let's take a critical look at some common myths about romance Myth 1 Luck is the essence of romance Luck has very little to do with romance other than to maintain the illusion that we are helpless pawns in the game of love Most folks engage in their search for a partner and then hope for the best These people have no expectation of winning Many people approach romance in the same way that they approach a gambling table in Las Vegas They put their dollar on the crap table roll the dice and pray Professional gamblers however do everything in their power to increase the odds in their favor In addition professional lovers do everything in their power to increase their possibilities of meeting the person of their dreams People tend to pray wish hope and dream about finding their ideal mate but they seldom develop a strategy or plan of action They spend more time and energy planning a dinner party than the most important human relationship of their lives Myth 2 Marriages are made in heaven This myth is similar to the first one in that it assumes that relationships are preordained out of the hands of ordinary mortals It assumes that we do not have any control over the mates we end up with and that we must settle for those relationships in which we find ourselves involved Human beings make choices Many of them are poor choices Myth 3 There is only one partner that is perfect for each of us If this were the case then it would not be possible for people to have happiness in a marriage after the death of a spouse Clearly since people do indeed find happiness in second and even third marriages there is more than one potential mate available for each of us Our job is to increase the probabilities of finding those potential partners In order to find these potential mates we must develop a strategy Just as there is more than one house that we can fall in love with there is more than one potential mate If we increase the pool of available partners we can then fall in love with any one of them The trick is to set up our criteria take appropriate actions and then allow for nature to take its course Romance and love at first sight are integral to our fantasies about mate selection We love to hear stories about how people fall in love We love the notion of two people gazing across a crowded room eyes meeting and love is in bloom More often than not these people are in lust not love However this is not to say that this cannot happen However it is unlikely More often love grows between two people who have a common connection It is the common connections that bind us love then blooms in the soil of mutual interest mutual respect and friendship What my strategy will do is increase the odds of this happening
