complementarity of technical and practical interests in acquiring knowledge for a critical theory of society Apel examines the preconditions for an emancipatory critique of ideology and the communication community as the predeterminate of both the social sciences and moral discourse In all the essays Apel sets out to counter the positivistic and scientistic restrictions placed upon a satisfactory understanding of the preconditions for the possibility and validity of human knowledge This is a must read for scholars and researchers of philosophy by three interrelated concerns 1 to develop a concept of communicative rationality that is no longer tied to the subjective and individualistic premises of modern social and political theory 2 to construct a two level concept of society that integrates the lifeworld and system paradigms and 3 to sketch out a critical theory of modernity that explains its sociopathologies in a new way Habermas approaches these tasks through a combination of conceptual analyses systematic reflections and critical reconstructions of such predecessors as Marx and Weber Durkheim and Mead Horkheimer and Adorno Schutz and Parsons Reason and the Rationalization of Society develops a sociological theory of action that stresses not its means ends or teleological aspect but the need to coordinate action socially via communication In the introductory chapter Habermas sets out a powerful series of arguments on such foundational issues as cultural and historical relativism the methodology of Verstehen the inseparability of interpretation from critique In addition to clarifying the normative foundations of critical social inquiry this sets the stage for a systematic appropriation of Weber's theory of rationalization and its Marxist reception by Lukacs Horkheimer and Adorno This is an important book for degree students of philosophy sociology and related subjects

La philosophie contemporaine / Contemporary philosophy Guttorm Fløistad, 2012-12-06 The present publication is a continuation of two earlier series of chronicles Philosophy in the Mid Century Firenze 1958 59 and Contemporary Philosophy Firenze 1968 edited by Raymond Klibansky As with the earlier series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophical discussion The time space covered by the present series is approximately 1966 1978 The need for such surveys has I believe increased rather than decreased over the last years The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before The continuing process of specialization in most branches the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and the philosophy of language the convergence of interest though not necessarily of opinion of different traditions upon certain problems and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributory factors Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity and may as such be of assistance in renewing the understanding of one's own philosophical problems The surveys it is to be hoped may also help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the dialogue or Kommunikationsgemeinschaft So far four volumes have been prepared for the new series The present chronicles in Philosophy of Science Vol 2 follow the
