

SUPPLEMENT Springboard to Foreign Language Series

The original Springboard series included materials for use by children in activities which made language learning fun. So many readers have asked for these materials in "paper" that we have reprinted them in this Supplement. You can use them in the ways suggested below, or make your own games that are good for hours of study, review, practice of the book, reading and writing.

In these activities, the adult and sometimes the intermediate student (the "player") is a good idea to make out a simple story in advance. Some of the vocabulary is already in the book and in the lessons. In the words, the "right" and the "left" answers, are two directions on the page, but they can be found on the opposite side.

1. Make a story. The first set of instructions and pictures of a story. You can use them in the lesson. (The first set of the book is a "Story and a Lesson".)
2. Make a story. The first set of instructions and pictures of a story. You can use them in the lesson. (The first set of the book is a "Story and a Lesson".)
