Softball Everyone Douglas John DeMichele, David Majeski, 2005 Softball Everyone Jim Reach, Bernard Schwartz, Kathy Van Wyk, 1989 Swag 101 Rob Crews, 2013-11-04 SWAG 101 by Rob Crews The trajectory of learning has changed therefore the trajectory of teaching must change as well Be innovative in player development I love talking the game with Rob Crews especially when you talk about hitters The insight that Rob has given me when it comes down to his perspective on hitting has been very beneficial to me as a hitting coach You are not going to find another hitting coach as passionate as Coach Crews TIM WALTON Head Coach University of Florida Softball Rob breaks down teaching and learning not only for athletes but for the common everyday citizen I recommend SWAG 101 to everyone interested in becoming more knowledgeable of the teaching and learning process no matter your intelligence level ORV FRANCHUK Hitting Coach Los Angeles Dodgers SWAG 101 teaches hitting and the mental game from a player's perspective His innovative ideas and strategies are straight forward and keep the game simple I'm proud to call Rob a teacher and a friend HOWARD DOBSON Hitting Coach LSU Team USA Softball This book is an absolute must read for those players aspiring to reach the top level game SWAG the secret weapon all great hitters possess but are reluctant to share LAUREN GIBSON 2013 SEC Player of the Year Team USA Softball Rob knows hitting and more importantly he knows hitters In SWAG 101 hitters learn to know themselves through his teachings perhaps the most critical piece to the performance puzzle KRIS HERMAN Head Coach Williams College Softball The book does a great job of tying in the various components of learning and how important each aspect is to an athlete in their own development Rob is world class when it comes to showing the countless ways there are for an athlete to improve not just with the physical but more importantly the mental facet MIKE STEUERWALD Head Coach Chicago Bandits NPF The bottom line is most athletes with great swings and great form aren't even that good So what makes them good SWAG 101 is about Invisible Mechanics the mechanics that we can't see What goes on under the hood Most of which precedes the swing It's about perception Organizing your thoughts In this book the author digs deeper into the athlete's operating system Invisible Mechanics is the brain working together with the eyes to create a faster more efficient response from the body The COMPLETE GAME instructional model as narrated by Rob Crews combines mind body research outlining and how effective teaching is continuing to evolve Bobby Robert L. Sandel, 2023-06-16 About the Book In 1938 at the age of four Bobby and his brother were taken to an orphanage called the Good Shepherd Home At the time he had two parents who both took him to the Home to live for ten years After he moved to live with his aunt and uncle Writing about his life story has helped him understand immensely the dynamics of how family functions To this day when he sees a four year old he wonders how parents can leave a child in an orphanage without showing their love and compassion He takes you through his life where despite not having loving parents he still succeeded He shows you his family relationship and how in the end it was through Christian love that he was successful in giving his family that he always dreamed of having care and love About the Author Robert L Sandel's life and career began when he left the Good Shepherd Home and was told by his oldest brother who he never lived with that he must graduate from high school and go onto college. The rest was left up to him to make his own decisions. In 1948 he said to himself that would start a new life. The dynamics were never easy, however, he went to college and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Math and Physics. With sheer determination, he became a salesman for Pfizer Pharmaceutical Co. In 1984 he succeeded in winning the Salesman of the Year Award and was listed in their Hall of Fame. In 1956 Robert was married and eventually had three wonderful children, one of whom was adopted. He now has six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. All of his family are doing well. His wife became a family therapist and has a Master's in Social Work. His son has traveled all over the world as a professor in Communications and written a book. His three children are doing very well. His two oldest graduated from the University of Oklahoma. One has a Master's Degree and the youngest is still in college. Robert's daughter is an accomplished artist and has her own studio. His oldest granddaughter also became a famous artist for a new modern family. His adopted daughter is the peacemaker in the family and is an accomplished Tae Kwon Do black belt leader. Shortly after college, Robert became a Boy Scout leader. He loved community sports such as softball, basketball, golf, and running. He served as Treasurer for his local church in Canandaigua, New York, and when he moved to Alabama, he also served as Treasurer for Tuscaloosa International Friends and Tuscaloosa Emmaus Cluster. He is an avid reader and loves to read books, both political and non-fiction.

It doesn't have to be this way. The people you work with may be from a different generation, different culture, different race, different gender, or just a different philosophy toward work and life in general, but you need to work together toward a common goal. How to Work With and Lead People Not Like You explains how to dial down the differences, smooth out the friction, and play upon each other's strengths to become more effective, more productive, and less stressed. The keys are to find the common ground and identify hidden conflicts that are hurting productivity. Many people shudder at the prospect of working with diverse groups of people, but they can't voice their fear or anxiety. At work, it's not OK or politically correct to say, "I'm uncomfortable with this person." In fact, if you do say something along those lines, your job may be at risk.

Your company may terminate you for not being on the diversity bandwagon So you keep quiet and you keep your thoughts to yourself But deep down you are uncomfortable If you feel like this it doesn't mean you're racist sexist against homophobic or any other negative label It means you're struggling You're struggling to understand people cultures or values that are unfamiliar to you You're struggling to do your job with teammates and coworkers who may have very different viewpoints or different approaches to communication than you have You're struggling to overcome differences and pull together to achieve high performance at work Whether you're leading a diverse team working in a challenging cross cultural environment or simply working with people who are not like you you need to be able to get along with everyone as a team to get the work done This book explains the skills you need to communicate motivate and inspire people to collaborate even if they have very different values lifestyles or priorities Learn key steps that bring cohesion to diversity How to have a constructive conversation about working alongside people who are different The four magic words that make this easier and smooth over friction What not to say and why Learn to set aside differences and get things done Learn how to handle a racist sexist homophobic or offensive remark in a professional way Retain your sanity when colleagues drive you crazy The changing demographics of today's workforce bring conflicting viewpoints perspectives approaches skills habits and personalities together in one place whether that leads to synergy or catastrophe is up to you How to Work With and Lead People Not Like You helps you turn a hurdle into an advantage so you or your team can do more achieve more and enjoy the ride

Craddock,2009-07-01 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach Sierra's Journey Lee Anne M.

Sgambati,2023-09-11 Sierra was always an exceptional child She was the child every parent hoped for From the time she was two she already knew she wanted to be the next Jenny Finch She started T ball at four years old on the pitcher s mound and that is where she played until she was nineteen when she was in a horrific car accident She had a team of about twenty doctors and every one of them warned us that people didn t make it through this kind of accident But they didn t know Sierra and how she knocked low odds out of the ballpark She earned a full ride to college because of her amazing pitching abilities I was the mom who was at every game cheering her on encouraging her to do her best and not letting her be too hard on herself when she made mistakes It made my heart so happy to see my baby girl on that pitcher s mound probably more happy than her when she was standing on the pitcher s mound I was sure that I would see her on TV playing one day Then one day I received a call from Coach Lucas and my world Sierra s world and all of our family s world changed We lost our Sierra that day and gained a new Sierra She defied all odds and she is alive and able to do the things we all take for granted and we are so very grateful first to God then to Sierra for fighting to the amazing neurosciences ICU doctors and nurses the extraordinary staff at the rehab hospital in Las Cruces and lastly to all the people who patiently stood by her side and helped her get to the point she is today CliffsTestPrep California High School Exit Exam-English Language Arts Jerry
