Sole E Ombrasun And Shadow:

Pirandello and the Crisis of Modern Consciousness Anthony Caputi, 1988 Italian Cinema from the Silent Screen to the Digital Image Joseph Luzzi, 2020-02-20 In this comprehensive guide some of the world's leading scholars consider the issues films and filmmakers that have given Italian cinema its enduring appeal Readers will explore the work of such directors as Federico Fellini Michelangelo Antonioni and Roberto Rossellini as well as a host of subjects including the Italian silent screen the political influence of Fascism on the movies lesser known genres such as the giallo horror film and Spaghetti Western and the role of women in the Italian film industry Italian Cinema from the Silent Screen to the Digital Image explores recent developments in cinema studies such as digital performance the role of media and the Internet neuroscience in film criticism and the increased role that immigrants are playing in the nation's cinema Spaces of Polyphony Clara-Ubalda Lorda, Patrick Zabalbeascoa, 2012 Spaces of Polyphony covers a lot of ground It echoes the voices of researchers and their informants from many different places and backgrounds Among the variety of languages under study and methodological approaches there is also a common ground and narrative thread underpinning the polyphonic chorus of the contributors From a shared starting point of discourse analysis and inspiration from Bakhtin the various authors span from East to West from Moscow to Texas from Romania and Czech Republic to Mexico They look into all ages starting from early childhood and many walks of life ranging from casual chatting among relatives to parliamentary speeches and TV shows including formal education literary inner monologue and translation Irony humour and self awareness are recurrent themes The array of voices and dialogism studied in this book is such that it even includes the silent silenced voices of people forced to express their heritage by weaving their discourse A History of Women's Writing in Italy Letizia Panizza, Sharon Wood, 2000 This volume offers a comprehensive account of writing by women in Italy Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic Angela Guiso, Virginia A. Picchietti, 2025-02-15 Central to Grazia Deledda's narrative worlds are the relationships between her characters and the vast landscapes in which they move and act The writer translates and represents her characters her characters emotions and her natural and urban landscapes with a vocabulary that is often related to the visual arts However although her descriptions contain the gradations of Modernist painting beginning with Impressionism no book length study and with diverse perspectives has thus far investigated Deledda's relationship with the visual arts and the resulting painterly aesthetic of her multicolored narratives In this sense Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic provides an articulated literary panorama of Deledda's novels and short stories through a discourse that is situated between literature and pictorial art Inspired by these two cardinal points the analyses are undertaken by contributors who have a profound awareness of an epochal change and work in different disciplines One year from the centenary of her receipt of the Nobel Prize the contributors investigate the connections consonances and differences between Grazia Deledda's oeuvre and other works inside this panorama to verify a possible unity of purpose At the same time they seek to ascertain whether these connections can corroborate and exalt the choices that the Sardinian writer made to free herself from the constraints of a hostile environment

PLANK: SOL / SOMBRA Michael Plank, Biagio Cisotti, Konstantin Grcic, 2025-04-07 SOL SOMBRA A Dialogue in Contrast Like sun and shadow SOL and SOMBRA were designed as a deliberate pair two chairs that share a common foundation yet express distinct identities Rather than merging different qualities into one they are intentionally separate SOL is compact and agile while SOMBRA is more generous and relaxed Both chairs are crafted from solid ash a material that not only ensures longevity but also evokes certain historical references The vertically oriented legs and strictly horizontal armrests create a sense of space around the sitter offering a calm open presence Details such as the slightly tapered foot ends and the carved out armrests enhance the sense of craftsmanship in both designs SOL has a compact footprint and offers a low yet active seating posture Its plywood seat and backrest are designed to interlock allowing the backrest to flex freely and comfortably SOMBRA is wider softer and more classic in its design It features an upholstered seat and backrest cushion with broad armrests that provide a convenient surface for resting a phone book or drink Available in natural or colour stained ash with soft woollen or leather upholstery SOL SOMBRA complement each other two chairs distinct yet connected

The Substance of Shadow John Hollander, 2016-05-31 John Hollander poet and scholar was a master whose work joined luminous learning and imaginative risk This book based on the unpublished Clark Lectures Hollander delivered in 1999 at Cambridge University witnesses his power to shift the horizons of our thinking as he traces the history of shadow in British and American poetry from the Renaissance to the end of the twentieth century Shadow shows itself here in myriad literary identities revealing its force as a way of seeing and a form of knowing as material for fable and parable Taking up a vast range of texts from the Bible Dante Shakespeare and Milton to Poe Dickinson Eliot and Stevens Hollander describes how metaphors of shadow influence our ideas of dreaming desire doubt and death These shadows of poetry and prose fiction point to unknown often fearful domains of human experience showing us concealed shapes of truth and possibility Crucially Hollander explores how shadows in poetic history become things with a strange substance and life of their own they acquire the power to console haunt stalk wander threaten command and destroy Shadow speaks even sings revealing to us the lost as much as the hidden self An extraordinary blend of literary analysis and speculative thought Hollander's account of the substance of shadow lays bare the substance of poetry itself

From Mythos to Logos Michael Trevor Coughlin, 2019-05-15 From Mythos to Logos Andrea Palladio Freemasonry and the Triumph of Minerva explores how myth was used to encode architecture and frescoed interiors with insights that promote peace freedom and kindness as ways of being in the world The author Michael Trevor Coughlin argues that Freemasonry took root in the Italian city of Vicenza as early as 1546 and that its precepts conveyed through the intersection of myth and philosophy were disseminated widely in buildings and images as well as texts prescribing tolerance and an understanding of the divine that exists in each and everyone The Lyre and the Oaten Flute Darío Fernández-Morera,1982 Selected Poetry and Prose Chiara Matraini,2009-05-15 Chiara Matraini 1515 1604 was a member of the great flowering of poetic imitators and innovators in the Italian literary heritage begun by Petrarch cultivated later by the lyric poet Pietro Bembo and supplanted by the epic poet Torquato Tasso Though without formal training Matraini excelled in a number of literary genres popular at the time poetry religious meditation discourse and dialogue In her midlife she published a collection of erotic love poetry but later in life her work shifted toward a search for spiritual salvation Near the end of her life she published a new poetry retrospective Mostly available in only a handful of rare book collections her writings are now adeptly translated here for an English speaking audience and situated historically in an introduction by noted Matraini expert Giovanna Rabitti Selected Poetry and Prose allows the poet to finally take her place as one of the seminal authors of the Renaissance next to her contemporaries Vittoria Colonna and Laura Battiferra also published in the Other Voice series The Colonnade ,1915 The Fabrication of Leonardo da Vinci's Trattato della pittura (2 vols.) Claire Farago,Janis Bell,Carlo Vecce,2018-01-29 The basis for our understanding of Leonardo s theory of art was for over 150 years his Treatise on Painting which was issued in 1651 in Italian and French This present volume offers both the first scholarly edition of the Italian editio princeps as well as the first complete English translation of this seminal work In addition It provides a comprehensive study of the Italian first edition documenting how each editorial campaign that lead to it produced a different understanding of the artist s theory What emerges is a rich cultural and textual history that foregrounds the transmission of artisanal knowledge from Leonardo s workshop in the Duchy of Milan to Carlo Borromeo s Milan Cosimo I de Medici s Florence Urban VIII s Rome and Louis XIV s Paris Memoirs Royal Astronomical Society,1879 The Timepiece of Shadows Henry Spencer Spackman,1895 The New Quarterly Magazine ,1878
