A Journey in Translation Lee Skallerup Bessette, 2016-08-03 This book traces the remarkable journey of Herbert's shifting authorial identity as versions of her work traveled through complex and contested linguistic and national terrain from the late 1950s until today. At the center of this exploration of Herbert's work are the people who were inspired by her poetry to translate and more widely disseminate her poems to a wider audience. Exactly how did this one woman's work travel so much farther than the vast majority of Quebecois authors? Though the haunting quality of her art partly explains her wide appeal, her work would have never traveled so far without the effort of scores of passionately committed translators, editors, and archivists. Though the work of such middle men is seldom recognized, much less scrutinized as a factor in shaping the meaning and reach of an artist, in Herbert's case the process of translating Herbert's poetry has left in its wake a number of archival and other paratextual resources that chronicle the individual acts of translation and their reception. Though the impact of translation, editions, and archival work has been largely ignored in studies of Canadian literary history, the treasure trove of such paratextual records in Herbert's case allows us to better understand the reach of her work. More importantly, it provides insight into and raises critical questions about the textually mediated process of nation building and literary canon formation. Published in English. All the Feels / Tous les sens Marie Carrière, Ursula Mathis-Moser, Kit Dobson, 2021-02-26 All the Feels / Tous les sens presents research into emotion and cognition in Canadian Indigenous and Quebecois writings in English or French. Affect is both internal and external, private and public, with its fluid boundaries it represents a productive dimension for literary analysis. The emerging field of affect studies makes vital claims about ethical impulses, social justice, and critical resistance, and thus much is at stake when we adopt affective reading practices. The contributors ask what we can learn from reading contemporary literatures through this lens. Unique and timely, readable and teachable, this collection is a welcome resource for scholars of literature, feminism, philosophy, and transnational studies, as well as anyone who yearns to imagine the world differently. Contributors: Nicole Brossard, Marie Carrière, Matthew Cormier, Kit Dobson, Nicoletta Dolce, Louise Dupré, Margery Fee, Ana María Fraile, Marcos Smaro Kamboureli, Aaron Kreuter, Daniel Laforest, Carmen Mata Barreiro, Ursula Mathis-Moser, Heather Milne, Eric Schmaltz, Maït Snauwaert, Jeanette den Toonder. Beware the Stranger Peter Noble, 2021-09-13 The stranger, the survenant, represents an important theme in Quebec literature of the second half of the twentieth century. This book analyses the role of the survenant in five major novels dating from 1945 to 1992 and shows how the theme is constantly reworked and revitalised by the authors selected. The arrival of a survenant in a community brings to the surface the conflicts and tensions which had been latent. The consequences can be tragic for all concerned. At the least, the community is changed forever. This is the first study of the way in which different Quebecois authors treat the survenant and should be of interest to all students of Quebec literature and culture. The Haunted Hand Louise Dupré, 2020-03-15 This pocket-sized paperback is one of the thirty titles published for 2019 Hong Kong International Poetry Nights. Reading Nelligan Emile Talbot, 2003-05 mile Nelligan 1879 1941 wrote all of his poetry as an adolescent before spending four decades in a psychiatric asylum Considering all of Nelligan's work and using a largely textual approach mile Talbot points out the Canadian roots of Nelligan's originality He argues that these are discernable despite Nelligan's use of the discourse of nineteenth century continental French poetry particularly that of the Parnassians and the Decadents Talbot's textual analysis is integrated with a consideration of the social cultural artistic and religious climate of both late nineteenth century Montreal and the European literary culture to which Nelligan was responding Talbot considers such pertinent
