Things That Matter William Emilsen,Patricia Curthoys,2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church s premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University s School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community Hawaii Nei Victoria Nalani Kneubuhl,2002-08-31 Hawaii Nei brings together three plays by one of Hawaii s finest playwrights A compassionate portrait of early nineteenth century Hawaii The Conversion of Kaahumanu charts the lives of five women during the traumatic transforming events that followed Western contact Set in post World War II Hawaii Emmalehua tells the story of a young Hawaiian woman struggling to preserve a cherished cultural heritage in a world eager to forget the past and embrace the new American dream Through history humor and a whodunnit plot the past and present collide in Ola Na Iwi which explores the issues surrounding the treatment of indigenous human remains
