Sortir Du Piège Monétaire:

Sortir du piège monétaire Célestin Monga, Jean-Claude Tchatchouang, 1996 Comment sortir du piège américain? Pierre Leconte, 2003 The Oxford Handbook of the Economy of Cameroon Célestin Monga, 2022 This Handbook provides a critical assessment of the history patterns and strategies of economic development in Cameroon and outlines new approaches to economic enquiry for prosperity and social change Nonperforming Loans in Sub-Saharan Africa Hippolyte Fofack, 2005 This paper investigates the leading causes of nonperforming loans during the economic and banking crises that affected a large number of countries in Sub Saharan Africa in the 1990s Empirical analysis shows a dramatic increase in these loans and extremely high credit risk with significant differences between the CFA and non CFA countries and substantially higher financial costs for the latter sub panel of countries The results also highlight a strong causality between these loans and economic growth real exchange rate appreciation the real interest rate net interest margins and interbank loans consistent with the causality and econometric analysis which reveal the significance of macroeconomic and microeconomic factors The dramatic increase in these loans is largely driven by macroeconomic volatility and reflects the vulnerability of undiversified African economies which remain heavily exposed to external shocks Simulated results show that macroeconomic stability and economic growth are associated with a declining level of nonperforming loans whereas adverse macroeconomic shocks coupled with higher cost of capital and lower interest margins are associated with a rising scope of nonperforming loans These results are supported by long term estimates of nonperforming loans derived from pseudo panel based prediction models World Bank web site The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015-07-02 For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this handbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and

Africa's contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists The Political Economy of Africa Vishnu Padayachee, 2010-06-10 The Political Economy of Africa aims to fill a major gap in the existing literature by exploring the economy and economics of Africa The book has a critical approach from the perspective of political economy rather than mainstream economics This book addresses the seemingly intractable economic problems of the African continent and trace their origins but also always to bring out the instances of successful economic change and the possibilities for economic revival and renewal POLITIQUE AFRICAINE N-105 - France-Afrique : Sortir du pacte colonial, 2007-04-01 La politique française en Afrique depuis longtemps mise en cause pour ses relents néocoloniaux et son conservatisme est de plus en plus ouvertement rejetée par les nouvelles générations africaines Ce dossier de Politique Africaine propose une analyse critique de l'inaction de la France en Afrique sous J Chirac et pose les jalons d'une possible refondation Malgré des formes importantes la politique d'indiscipline menée n'a pas su s'adapter aux évolutions du continent The Monetary Geography of Africa Paul R. Masson, Catherine Pattillo, 2004-11-30 Africa is working toward the goal of creating a common currency that would serve as a symbol of African unity The advantages of a common currency include lower transaction costs increased stability and greater insulation of central banks from pressures to provide monetary financing Disadvantages relate to asymmetries among countries especially in their terms of trade and in the degree of fiscal discipline More disciplined countries will not want to form a union with countries whose excessive spending puts upward pressure on the central bank's monetary expansion In The Monetary Geography of Africa Paul Masson and Catherine Pattillo review the history of monetary arrangements on the continent and analyze the current situation and prospects for further integration They apply lessons from both experience and theory that lead to a number of conclusions To begin with West Africa faces a major problem because Nigeria has both asymmetric terms of trade it is a large oil exporter while its potential partners are oil importers and most important large fiscal imbalances Secondly a monetary union among all eastern or southern African countries seems infeasible at this stage since a number of countries suffer from the effects of civil conflicts and drought and are far from achieving the macroeconomic stability of South Africa Lastly the plan by Kenya Tanzania and Uganda to create a common currency seems to be generally compatible with other initiatives that could contribute to greater regional solidarity However economic gains would likely favor Kenya which unlike the other two countries has substantial exports to its neighbors and this may constrain the political will needed to proceed A more promising strategy for monetary integration would be to build on existing monetary unions the CFA franc zone in western and central Africa and the Common Monetary Area in southern Africa Masson and Pattillo argue that the goal of creating a Marginal Gains Jane I. Guyer, 2004-03 In America almost all the money in circulation passes through financial institutions every day But in Nigeria's cash and carry system 90 percent of the currency never comes back to a bank after it is issued What happens when two such radically different economies meet and mingle as they have for centuries in Atlantic Africa The answer is a rich diversity of economic practices responsive to both local and global circumstances In Marginal Gains Jane I Guyer explores and explains these often bewildering practices including trade with coastal capitalism and across indigenous currency zones and within the modern popular economy Drawing on a wide range of evidence Guyer demonstrates that the region shares a coherent if loosely knit commercial culture She shows how that culture actually works in daily practice addressing both its differing scales of value and the many settings in which it operates from crisis conditions to ordinary household budgets The result is a landmark study that reveals not just how popular economic systems work in Africa but possibly elsewhere in the Third World

Decolonial Aesthetics I Michaela Ott, Babacar Mbaye Diop, 2023-01-30

The publication aims to make suggestions for a decolonisation of aesthetics within an Afro European framework The texts whose authors come from different cultural contexts between Germany France Senegal Benin Nigeria and Tunisia do not only refer to heterogeneous aesthetic practices understood as subversive and decolonial strategies but also discuss philosophical questions of a renewed non individual humanism The artistic practices analyzed include artistic installations and ensembles as well as actions in urban and rural space deceptive manuvres at the borders and their photographic documentation and many more
