and French history writing and ideas familiar to many as the British year of victories during the Seven Years War 1759 was also an important year in the histories of fiction philosophy ethics and aesthetics Reading 1759 is the first book to examine together the range of works written and published during this crucial year Offering broad coverage of the year's work in writing these essays examine key works by Johnson Voltaire Sterne Adam Smith Edward Young Sarah Fielding and Christopher Smart along with such group projects as the Encyclopédie and the literary review journals of the mid eighteenth century Organized around a cluster of key topics the volume reflects the concerns most important to writers themselves in 1759 This was a year of the new and the modern as writers addressed current issues of empire and ethical conduct forged new forms of creative expression and grappled with the nature of originality itself Texts written and published in 1759 confronted the history of Western colonialism the problem of prostitution in a civilized society and the limitations of linguistic expression Philosophical issues were also important in 1759 not least the thorny question of causation while in France state censorship challenged the Encyclopédie the central Enlightenment project Taking into its purview such texts and intellectual the process the volume also provides a self reflective contribution to the growing body of annualized studies that focus on the
