Although urban allotment gardening dates back to the nineteenth century it has recently undergone a renaissance of interest and popularity This is the result of greater concern over urban greenspace food security and quality of life This book presents a comprehensive research based overview of the various features benefits and values associated with urban allotment gardening in Europe The book is based on a European COST Action project which brings together researchers and practitioners from all over Europe for the first detailed exploration of the subject on a continent wide scale It assesses the policy planning and design aspects as well as the social and ecological benefits of urban allotment gardening Through an examination of the wide range of different traditions and practices across Europe it brings together the most recent research to discuss the latest evolutions of urban allotment gardening and to help raise awareness and fill knowledge gaps The book provides a multidisciplinary perspective including insights from horticulture and soil science ecology sociology urban geography landscape planning and design The themes are underpinned by case studies from a number of European countries which supply a wide range of examples to illustrate different key issues     Conscious Coastal Cities Voula P.

Mega,2015-11-02 In the age of urban geopolitics in cooperation with the major city networks and initiatives interconnected coastal cities lead towards a more resilient sustainable future This book raises global awareness on the challenges and opportunities for coastal cities and the myriad of issues and stakeholders which impact them The book offers a panoramic integrated view of the most critical urban coastal sustainability issues shaping the urban horizon of the future Drawing on the most authoritative studies and asking further questions the book embraces issues of smart sustainable and inclusive blue green growth active social integration environmental conscience and resilience food energy and resource security exploration and protection of the global ocean ecosystem based urban coastal planning and policy and progress in education and science culture and the arts coastal urban renaissance and accountable multi layered governance From large global ports to small tourism and fishing resorts sustainable development calls for coastal cities to improve their functions Coastal cities need to adopt ecosystem based approaches to manage the land sea continuum invest in blue green energy and mobility attract responsible business investment and honour the sea as a source of infinite innovation and culture     Spatial and Transport Infrastructure Development in Europe Bernd Scholl,Ana Peric,Mathias Niedermaier,2020-01-13 The Orient East Med Corridor is a key north south transport corridor for Europe Over its length of more than 2500 km it connects the seaports of northern Germany with the Danube ports and Greek seaports Seven capitals of EU member states are directly interlinked by the Corridor At present however it has genuine shortcomings in several aspects The international working group Spatial and Transport Development in European Corridors Example Corridor 22 Hamburg Athens 2015 2018 trace the conditions for large scale corridor oriented spatial and transport development in Europe and in particular along the Orient East Med Corridor The contributions in the anthology also focus on the importance of transnational initiatives in Europe and on territorial effects of transport policies These topics are illustrated by analyses of current transport initiatives and urban developments at the most important nodes along the Corridor so called Hot Spots During the work process the authors asked themselves if and how a strategy for the Corridor can take effect for an integrated spatial and transport development between Hamburg and Athens The common answer is clear A strategy for the Orient East Med Corridor allows the organization of a more balanced flow of goods throughout Europe in the long run In the southeast section enormous land reserves in the close vicinity of railway stations can be activated for urban development Strengthening the Corridors infrastructure thus has a huge potential to trigger spatial development and ultimately contribute to territorial and social cohesion throughout Europe     Annuaire Europeen 1998 / European Yearbook 1998 Hans Christian Kroger,P. Tigrid,C. Brooks,C. Church,2000-12-01 The European Yearbook promotes the scientific study of nineteen European supranational organisations and the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD Each volume contains a detailed survey of the history structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up to date chart providing a clear overview of the member states of each organisation In addition a number of articles on topics of general interest are included in each volume A general index by subject and name and a cumulative index of all the articles which have appeared in the Yearbook are included in every volume and provide direct access to the Yearbook s subject matter Each volume contains a comprehensive bibliography covering the year s relevant publications This is an indispensable work of reference for anyone dealing with the European institutions     Speed Management European Conference of Ministers of Transport,2006-10-13 Speeding is the number one road safety problem in a large number of OECD ECMT countries It is responsible for around one third of the current unacceptably high levels of road fatalities Speeding has an impact not only on accidents but also on the Proceedings of IDEAS 2019 Luciana Pereira,José Reginaldo Hughes Carvalho,Petter Krus,Magnus Klofsten,Victor Juliano De Negri,2020-08-11 This book presents the proceedings of the IDEAS Conference which is intended as a forum for a new generation of researchers IDEAS is an arena that encourages researchers to defy their field s boundaries leveraging disciplinary mindset into contributions to broad domains within the Science Technology Engineering Entrepreneurship and Management Further IDEAS explores novel questions and challenges existing policies and practices on how to apply science and technology as an input to design more innovative and sustainable systems that promote human well being     ECMT Round Tables Transport and Decentralisation European Conference of Ministers of Transport,2006-09-13 Examines the circumstances under which decentralisation has brought economic and other benefits in the transport sector
