Spring Poem

'be quiet say nothing except the street be full of stars'

– Pablo Picasso, translated by David Gascoyne except the canals be full of evening and our hands full of lamplight the sky the colour of irises except the tomorrow sunlight fill the room pale as your discarded underwear and the streets be full of the taste of your body except we open the door in the forest and step out into the hallway your eyes a prayer without end in the darkness except that the tides of the year will move through the sand beneath the houses

beneath the plane trees, the bicycles beneath the cobblestones, the sea beneath my body,
your body.
