White Benevolence Amanda Gebhard, Sheelah McLean, Verna St. Denis, 2022-05-28T00:00:00Z When working with Indigenous people the helping professions education social work health care and justice reinforce the colonial lie that Indigenous people need saving In White Benevolence leading anti racism scholars reveal the ways in which white settlers working in these institutions shape defend and uphold institutional racism even while professing to support Indigenous people White supremacy shows up in the everyday behaviours language and assumptions of white professionals who reproduce myths of Indigenous inferiority and deficit making it clear that institutional racism encompasses not only high level policies and laws but also the collective enactment by people within these institutions In this uncompromising and essential collection the authors argue that white settler social workers educators health care practitioners and criminal justice workers have a responsibility to understand the colonial history of their professions and their complicity in ongoing
