Sources And Resources Of Feminist Theologies:

Introducing Asian Feminist Theology Kwok Pui-lan, 2000-07-01 Asian women comprise more than a quarter of the world's population and the forms in which they express feminist theology are many and varied extending through grassroots movements theological networks ecumenical conferences and journals Those involved in the process include community organizers theological students church leaders and social activists among whom even the concept feminism assumes many definitions and substitutes Kwok Pui-lan's introduction to this huge subject begins with a survey of the social political and cultural contexts of Asian women's experiences and then traces the emergence of feminist consciousness and the organization of women's networks She describes the resources of Asian feminist theology and the appropriation of Asian religious traditions and considers the reconstructions of the concept of God in inclusive categories Finally she summarizes Asian women's critique of the patriarchal church and outlines the search for a new spirituality that express women's embodiedness and sexuality

Feminist Theologies for a Postmodern Church Loraine MacKenzie Shepherd, 2002 Liberal modern approaches to theology have tended to silence voices from the margins This book offers an alternative feminist theological approach that more adequately addresses issues of diversity and marginalization It critically examines and combines aspects of four different feminist approaches Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza's critical modern Mary McClintock Fulkerson's poststructural Kwok Pui-lan's postcolonial and Kathryn Tanner's postliberal This alternative feminist theological approach is then used to examine how a liberal mainstream Protestant denomination has dealt with issues of sexual orientation and gender Particular attention is given to biblical interpretation as shaped by community the role of traditional doctrine assumptions of authority and revelation and communities of accountability

An/Other Praxis Herry M. Mukdani, 2013-12-01 Today's ecclesial praxis has to add something to human capacity in order for the church to envision itself whole This book addresses multiple struggles as creative acts theologically for rethinking a possibly constructive ecclesial praxis that addresses God's new creation in its relation to God's people By examining it in broader paradigms Herry Mukdani proposes an Other praxis as a critical option for ecclesial freedom An Other Praxis searches not only new impulses for theological practices but the extension of voices from the margins that have contributed both to fresh ideas and to new opportunities for life It also demands ecclesial praxis to put all existing voices into account and responsibly re-discover the subaltern or subordinated others Thus this praxis helps the subaltern communities of faith claim their own identities as border crossers in the midst of cultural and religious plurality They will be active subjects of new theological productions from and for the church They are able to prove theological creativity possible today that expands beyond its ecclesial limits An Other Praxis will be of interest to readers not merely because they want to learn something beyond the existing forms of praxis Rather it will always give them refreshing energies capable of making rich and sometimes risky responses to the ministry possible and real It will also give them attitude and perspective to improve a culturally diverse conversation in theology and thus it adds diversity in ministry and leadership in today's church The Community of the Weak
