Sources Of Inspiration For Ceramics And The Applied Arts:

Sources of Inspiration Carolyn Genders, 2002 There are times when all artists struggle for inspiration This can be particularly true when they try to create patterns textures and designs with which to decorate their work In this manual Carolyn Genders presents images of both natural and manmade objects all of which are designed to spark the imagination of the artist Along with this she shows how these images can be visually abstracted and then refined and developed to create other beautiful patterns and designs

Spark and Inspire: 30 Days of Meaningful Insight to Spark Your Business and Inspire Your Soul Robin Norgren, 2012-10-03 Within these pages you will find the voices of over 40 creative entrepreneurs who run their businesses both online and in brick and mortar stores who run workshops and sell in shows who have a range of experiences and have been in business from 1 year to more than 25 years and who offer you no nonsense information on their processes and how they have been able to keep moving in tough economic times and how they have found a way to let good ideas go when the money was not in line with the dream We are talking on a range of topics from collaborations to big leaps that did and did not come together as planned We are talking about how to get at the soul of your business and how to stay excited about the work you offer the world 30 days worth of questions that you can take and use as a 30 day diagnostic for your idea vision or business

The Ceramic Process, 2005 Drawn from the resources at EKWC this volume elucidates every aspect of the ceramic process from wedging clay to packing kilns This useful resource will be valuable to potters of every skill level

Art Nouveau Charlotte Ashby, 2021-10-21 Art Nouveau presents a new overview of the international Art Nouveau movement Art Nouveau represented the search for a new style for a new age a sense that the conditions of modernity called for fundamentally new means of expression Art Nouveau emerged in a world transformed by industrialisation urbanisation and increasingly rapid means of transnational exchange bringing about new ways of living working and creating This book is structured around key themes for understanding the contexts behind Art Nouveau including new materials and technologies colonialism and imperialism the rise of the modern woman the rise of the professional designer and the role of the patron collector It also explores the new ideas that inspired Art Nouveau nature and the natural sciences world arts and world religions psychology and new visions for the modern self Ashby explores the movement through 41 case studies of artists and designers buildings interiors paintings graphic arts glass ceramics and jewellery drawn from a wide range of countries

Hungarian Ceramics from the Zsolnay Manufactory, 1853-2001

Piroska Ács, Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts, 2002-01-01 The Zsolnay Manufactory represents a triumph of Hungarian applied arts for during its heyday it produced elegant and innovative ceramics for an international clientele as well as architectural ceramics that embellished some of the finest public and private buildings in the Austro-Hungarian empire This manual recounts the story of the 150 year old company and presents numerous examples of its work showing how its changing fortunes reflect the cultural economic and political developments in Central and Eastern Europe handcrafts are commonly associated with traditional femininity and unthreatening docility However the artists connected with interwar Vienna s female Secession created craft based artworks that may be understood as sites of feminist resistance In this book historian Megan Brandow Faller tells the story of how these artists disrupted long established boundaries by working to dislodge fixed oppositions between art and craft decorative and profound and masculine and feminine in art Tracing the history of the women s art movement in Secessionist Vienna from its origins in 1897 at the Women s Academy to the Association of Austrian Women Artists and its radical offshoot the Wiener Frauenkunst Brandow Faller tells the compelling story of a movement that reclaimed the stereotypes attached to the idea of Frauenkunst or women s art She shows how generational struggles and diverging artistic philosophies of art craft and design drove the conservative and radical wings of Austria s women s art movement apart and explores the ways female artists and craftswomen reinterpreted and extended the Klimt Group s ideas in the interwar years Brandow Faller draws a direct connection to the themes that impelled the better known explosion of feminist art in 1970s America In this provocative story of a Viennese modernism that never disavowed its ornamental decorative roots she gives careful attention to key primary sources including photographs and reviews of early twentieth century exhibitions and archival records of school curricula and personnel Engagingly written and featuring more than eighty representative illustrations The Female Secession recaptures the radical potential of what Fanny Harlfinger Zakucka referred to as works from women s hands It will appeal to art historians working in the decorative arts and modernism as well as historians of Secession era Vienna and gender history
